

Missionary Update Jonathan & Annalyn Guest International Students Inc.

Jonathan is now serving International Students Inc. (ISI) as the Northeast Regional Director as well as working with international students here at OSU. As the Northeast Regional Director, Jonathan is overseeing the ISI Ministry and missionaries serving on the college campuses of the northeastern states. He has many virtual meetings, thanks to technology, and is making regular trips to encourage, instruct and assist the missionary team under him. His international ministry here on the OSU campus includes the International Breakfast Bible Study on Sunday mornings. He is also ministering to the young men living at Varsity House to encourage them to live missional lives. Annalyn is also serving with ISI. She is beginning a new ministry working with the women from a Christian sorority at OSU similar to what Jonathan does at Varsity House. She is also meeting with international students, hosting students in their home and is involved with the International Breakfast Bible Study. In her free time she helps out at Santiam Christian School (which their children attend), and holds down the fort when Jonathan is traveling. Their son, Caleb, will graduate this spring from Santiam Christian High. He is planning to volunteer at a Christian camp in New York state for the summer and in the fall attend Patrick Henry College to study law. Their daughters, Ella, Lydia, and Sylvie, are involved in school activities at Santiam Christian, helping host International students that visit their home and helping with the International Breakfast Bible Study. Pray:

—That they will balance ministry and family life well.

—For Jonathan as he travels and leaves his family at home, his work with the NE Regional Ministry & OSU

—For Annalyn to be encouraged as she manages family, school and international ministry

— For Caleb as he finishes high school and moves on to college life on the east coast

—For Ella and Lydia as they finish this school year and then spend a week at Camp Attitude this summer serving as Buddies. For Sylvie that she will continue to touch people with her very special gift of friendship.
