

Jonathan and Annalyn Guest

Jonathan and Annalyn serve in international student ministry, now in the Northeastern states of the United States (NE states from MA through Northern Virginia). Jonathan is the Northeastern Regional Field Director for ISI and leads the ISI team serving in ministry on over 20 university campuses across the Northeast. There are over 380,000 international students in the NE, which comprises about 1/3 of the total number in the U.S. They have 3 daughters living at home and a son in college in Northern VA. In addition to leading the ISI staff team, they are prayerfully seeking to start new ministries and gain new staff members. Where they live in Lancaster, PA is not far from Harrisburg, the state capital. In Harrisburg there are several thousand international students but only limited outreach--like many other places in the NE. In the spring, Jonathan invited students from a local Bible college to join in an international student event with Harrisburg students. As a result, one of the Bible college students is applying to join ISI in the NE! Rejoice with them in the 3 East Asian students in Boston who recently put their faith in Christ and are being discipled by ISI staff that Jonathan supervises! Praise the Lord for the recent Easter Retreat in PA with international students from NYC, PA and MD. Thank God for Caleb getting through his first year at Patrick Henry College--and debt free!

Please pray for:

1. For wisdom to lead and serve the NE ISI team well.
2. That the Lord would increase the number of staff and volunteers serving among the 380K international students.
3. That the Guests would be able to bring together local churches, Bible college students and other ministries for effective international student outreach in Harrisburg.
5. For new ministry partners who would commit to praying and giving financially in this fresh new phase of ministry in the NE.
