

Missionary Update

Jason and Shannon Pittman serve with Paraclete Mission Group, coming alongside Christian leaders around the world. In Corvallis, they welcome and care for international students and refugees, creating a place of belonging for those far from home.

They also form and facilitate shepherd groups to support and encourage pastors and ministry leaders who often carry heavy responsibilities. These gatherings provide safe spaces for refreshment, prayer, and mutual care, helping leaders remain rooted in Christ. Their heartbeat is summed up in one word: Diaspora—bringing close those far away.

On campus, Jason gives direction to Spiritual Life @ OSU, an association of advisors to all the spiritual, philosophical, and religious groups at Oregon State University. Through this role, he helps foster dialogue, hospitality, and witness to the good news of Jesus among a diverse student body.

Prayer Requests:

- For deeper connections with international students and refugees this fall.
- For encouragement and endurance among the pastors and leaders in shepherd groups.
- For wisdom and grace in guiding Spiritual Life @ OSU on a secular campus.
