

Missionary Update

Kent and Kimberly Rasmussen

Wycliffe, Cameroon

Praise God!

*For a full and productive month in Texas (Family visits, time with James at college, medical visits)

*For a good start to Anna's sophomore year and Joel's senior year.

*Good physical therapy assistance for Kim over Zoom.

*For Ken's workshop with the Zulgo in the far north. (just beginning)

Please pray:

*For Kent's health. He arrived safely but is taking malaria medication and is experiencing headaches and fatigue. Pray for good food and clean water to be available in this remote location.

*For technology, power and computers to work without obstacles.

*For amazing progress on the Zulgo alphabet.

*For Kim, Joel and Anna back home in Yaoundé. Kent will be gone for 3 weeks.

Our missionaries in Haiti could use your prayer over the next couple of weeks. They are facing very hard times and have reached out to us for prayer support. Pray for wisdom, safety and God's love and peace to fill them to overflowing.

In this 7-session study, you'll sense the urgency of your God-given mission. You'll be challenged to move past what's comfortable and to tell your personal story of how God saw you, chose you, and sent you on a grand faith-adventure to go into all the world and make disciples. Study books will be available for $10.

- Tuesday mornings, 9:30am-11:30am in the Fellowship Hall, beginning 10/4. We are hoping to be able to provide childcare for this session, if needed. Contact Cathy Cunningham for more information (raydotpc@aol.com)
- Monday evenings, 7:00pm, beginning 10/10, at Cindy Forrest's home. Contact Cindy for more information. (cforrest@peak.org)

“Psalm 23” by Jennifer Rothschild
