HURRICANE RESPONSE—HOW YOU CAN HELP

Hurricane Helene has severely impacted many, with people losing power, homes, businesses, and even loved ones. Others are still searching for missing family members. Now, many of us are looking for ways to help our brothers, sisters, and neighbors recover and rebuild. By working together, we can meet the needs of our community and beyond. Here are three ways you can make a difference: volunteer, provide, and pray.

Volunteer your time: Epworth Foster families need our help. One local family requires assistance with meals, and another needs formula and groceries. If you'd like to help, email Rev. Maggie at mcantey@shandonumc.org, and she will connect you with Rev. Cathy Joens at Epworth. You can also join South Carolina United Methodist Disaster Response and Early Response teams by visiting umcsc.org/disaster.

Provide for those in need: You can give to UMCOR, SC Disaster Response, and Early Response Teams (ERT) by visiting umcsc.org/disaster, making a check payable to Shandon UMC (note UMCOR or SC Disaster Response), or giving online at shandonumc.org/give and selecting UMCOR from the list of funds.

Pray for peace and comfort: We believe in the power of prayer. You can pray for peace and comfort for those affected by the storm, for first responders, and for those working through UMC ministries to meet the needs of our communities.

FINAL COMMUNITY CONVERSATION: Thank you to everyone who has participated in our Community Conversations. The Church Council values your input, and we hope that we have grown closer as a church family in the process. The conversations have been focused on two questions: What do you value about Shandon UMC? How do you think the decisions of the recent UMC General Conference regarding human sexuality may or should impact the things you value at Shandon? We will offer one final set of Community Conversations on Wednesday, October 16, at 6:00 p.m. Please go to shandonumc.org/register to sign up.
