

Reading Plan for the Gospels

MARCH 5 – APRIL 19, 2025

The 40 days leading up to Easter is an opportunistic time for us to seek after Jesus in a more intentional way.

This reading plan will guide you to read through all four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John) between now and Easter Sunday. Maybe you have never read through all four Gospels, or maybe it has been a long time. Either way, this will be good for all of us!

The format is simple. You will read 2-3 chapters per day, with the exception of Sundays. This actually gives some “make up” time if you miss a day of reading during the week. You might also consider having a journal as your companion for this journey. From your daily reading you can write down verses that are especially meaningful, questions you might have, or insights you feel the Lord impressing upon you. Might spark some good conversation with others!

If daily time in the Bible is not yet a habit in your life then the next 40 days of reading just might develop this discipline within you. Pick a time that can be consistent for you each day. Pick a place to read where you will not be distracted. Spend a few moments in prayer (Matthew 6:9-13 is a great guide for praying personally). Write down what you are learning. This is not simply a task to be accomplished, but an intentional means of spending daily time with our Lord Jesus.
