

Prayer Requests from David & Aleece Cooper

Aníbel and Hector are two men that I am mentoring/discipling who are growing a lot. Please pray as they are working through a lot of peacemaking and forgiveness in their families as they learn to walk with God. There are a lot of past hurts they are sifting through now.

Pray for a friend, Christian. He is not a Christian, haha, but has been bringing his family to church for about 6 months now. His boys Andres and Alvaro are in my SS class and he has started coming to our weekly men's meeting. His wife Julie trusted in Jesus a couple of weeks ago. Pray for his salvation.

We are starting a new semester at Seminary on March 9th, which is always exciting but a lot of work. I am not sure how many students I have in my classes yet, so praying for many more to sign up for the expository preaching program specifically.

Also currently writing/adapting a Spanish version of the "Practicing the Way" course which is a discipleship/spiritual formation resource. It will be 8 weeks long and taught through our men's and ladies' meetings so there should be over 30 people taking it from our church plant, which is really cool.

- Praise God for Kevin Gough's continued progress and his release from hospital this week. Please continue to pray for his recovery while her remains in Toronto for follow up care and appointments.
- Praise God for what He is doing to grow His church throughout the world. Give thanks for the opportunity to hear about some of this through the last month. Pray specifically for the Body of Christ in Iran, in the face of great danger and a mounting crisis.
- Pray for SBC's upcoming outreach and evangelism efforts. Pray for "In the Harvest", and ministry in London next week. Pray for the March Break kids' outreach preparations.
- Let us pray together that we will become more faithful, deliberate and effective, as a church, in sharing the Good News with a broken world. May we understand what Christ has done for us, and desire to share this with others.
