This is only a guide. Feel free to use each question or simply dive deeper into just one.

Scriptures: 1 Peter 2: 11-24, PSALM 139:23–24

Three Essential Questions

These are intended to be open-ended and encourage members to consider how they felt and what they, or the group, can do as a result of hearing the message.

1. What did you hear? What point in this message was most impactful for you?
2. What do you think? How did this message challenge, change, or affirm your thinking?
3. What will you do? How will you or your group put into practice what you've learned today?

Message Points/Extra Questions

1. What tends to make you feel like you're winning or losing? How might your definition of "winning" be different from God's?
2. Where do you tend to focus your energy when you're frustrated with the world around you? What are some "outside" battles that easily consume your attention?
3. What does "picking the right battle" look like in your life right now? What is one battle you may be spending too much energy fighting that God may not be asking you to fight?
4. What sinful desire, bitterness, resentment, or unforgiveness might God be asking you to confront?
5. Peter says that rather than constantly arguing with people who oppose them, Christians should live lives so compelling that even their critics ultimately see their good deeds and glorify God. What does "fighting with goodness" look like in today's culture? How is that different from simply trying to prove that we're right?
6. When have you chosen being right over preserving a relationship?
7. Where do you have influence right now — work, school, neighborhood, family, friendships? What is one tangible good thing you could do this week that might point someone toward God?
8. What does it look like to "entrust yourself to Him who judges justly" when someone wrongs you?
9. What is God asking you to do this week?
