Three Essential Questions

The following questions are intended to be open-ended and encourage members to consider how they felt and what they, or the group, can do as a result of hearing the message.

1. What did you hear? What point in this message was most impactful for you?
2. What do you think? How did this message challenge, change, or affirm your thinking?
3. What will you do? How will you or your group put into practice what you've learned today?

Message Points/Extra Questions

1. When you hear the word peace, what immediately comes to mind?
2. How is biblical peace different from the world's definition of peace?
3. What "terrain" are you currently walking through (stress, grief, uncertainty, conflict, exhaustion)?
4. In what ways have you been tempted to cope with difficulty instead of turning to Christ for peace?
5. What does the Gospel mean to you beyond forgiveness of sins?
6. What would it look like this week to actively "put on" the Gospel instead of just believing it intellectually?
7. What does it look like to be an "agent of peace" in your workplace, home, or online?
