INTRODUCTION

As followers of Jesus, it is good for us to regularly come back to the narrative that helps us make sense of our world. Through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, God Himself has provided a grand narrative and preserved it for us in the Bible.

The sixty-six books in the Bible contain the story of God and His master plan of establishing a community of loving persons, with Himself included as it's prime sustainer and most glorious inhabitant.

Pastor and author Darrell Johnson has noted that the first eleven chapters of Genesis provide a context to understand the rest of the narrative of Scripture.

These chapters of the opening book in the Bible speak to fundamental questions we ask in every age:

Where do we come from?
Why are we here?
What does it mean to be human?
What is wrong with humanity?
Where is God in all of this?
Can the world be fixed? Who will do the fixing?

When we come to study and live in the stories of Genesis 1-11, we come to realize just how good the gospel of Jesus Christ really is.

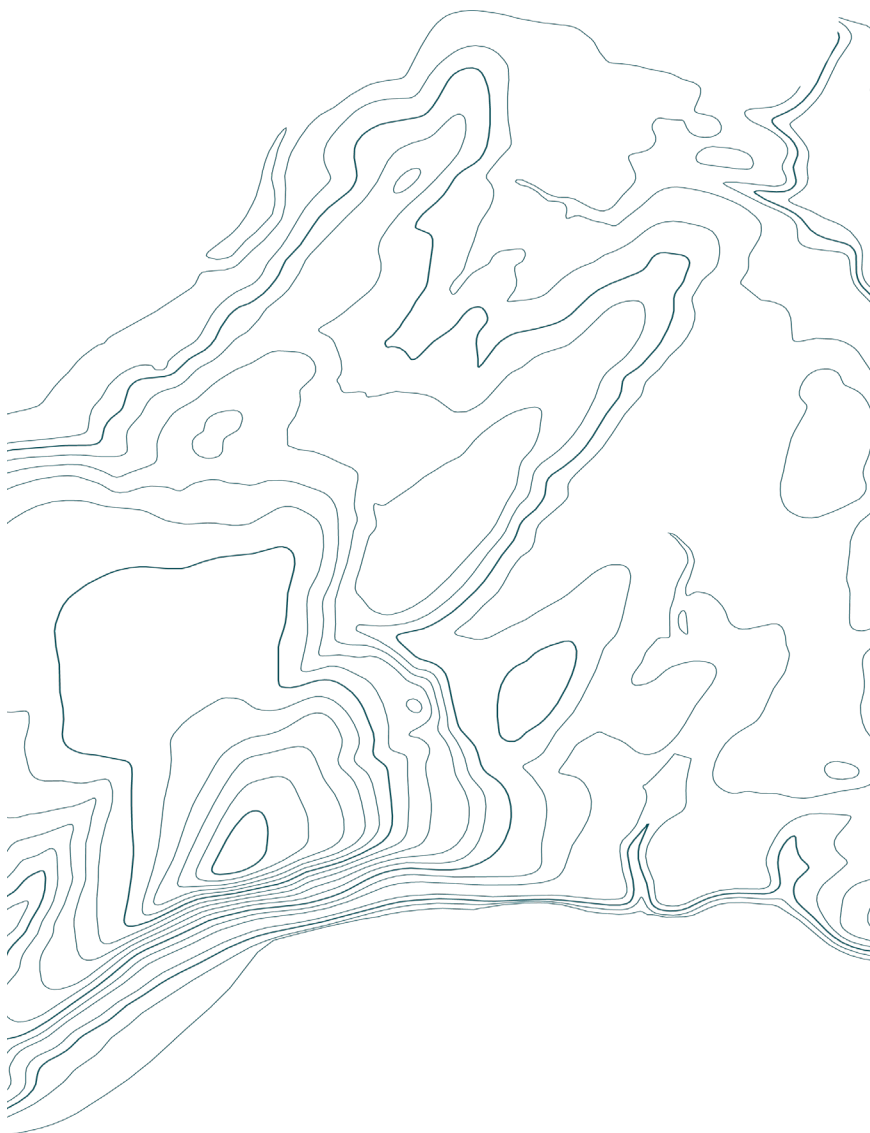

Understanding this story will take all of our life. In these moments, we are invited to allow them to shape and reshape our life to reflect the heart of God.

Much of the background and questions for this series come from Darrell Johnson's book entitled The Story that Makes Sense of Our Stories.

INTRODUCTION

In addition to the questions, you will find a Spiritual Practice to accompany the series. During this series, we are all invited to the practice of Evangelism.

- Pastor Brian Robertson

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: EVANGELISM

Melodie Sun writes, “I have never accidentally shared the gospel with anyone. That is not to say that I have never had an unexpected encounter with someone that led to a gospel [conversation], but even then, there was an intentional decision to steer the conversation toward Jesus.”

Sharing our faith can be intimidating for various reasons: feeling unequipped and fearing rejection to name a couple. We know we are to share our faith, but many of us avoid it.

The nature of a Spiritual Practice is something we intentionally do to help enable us to do what we currently do not do. In this way, there are intentional steps for each of us to do to help position us to share our faith in Jesus.

Step 1 – Pray for openness. In this step, we pray for an openness with someone. This might be someone you want to specifically share with or someone in general. Pray that you would sense an openness from the other person.

Step 2 – Watch with an open heart. Pay particular attention to the conversations you are having where someone is aware of a deeper longing/hurt.

Step 3 – “Tell me more about that.” When sensing someone’s openness to deeper things, invite them to share a little more about that.

Step 4 – Connect your story. After hearing some of their story, is there a way where your story interacts with theirs? Offer a simple connection.

Step 5 - Pray with them. Offer to pray with/for them. Usually people are not opposed to others offering a prayer for them.

Step 6 - Offer an invitation. If possible, invite them to join you for a worship service. This is another way to continue spiritual conversations with people. Ask how they experienced the worship service and how it might connect with their desire for a life with God.

I offer these steps as an introduction to the discipline of sharing your faith - not as a rigid timeline to legalistically follow. As we are intentional and prayerful, I believe the Holy Spirit will guide and lead our conversations to be fruitful.

WEEK 1: CREATOR CREATES...

PASTOR BRIAN ROBERTSON

JAN. 4, 2026

WORSHIP RESOURCES

“Praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights above.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his heavenly hosts.

Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.

Praise him, you highest heavens and you waters above the skies.

Let them praise the name of the Lord,
for his name alone is exalted;
his splendor is above the earth and the heavens.

And he has raised up for his people a horn,
the praise of all his faithful servants,
of Israel, the people close to his heart.”

Psalm 148:1-4,13-14 NIVCommunity Prayer:

Trinity United Methodist Church - Jim Nathan
Our Daily Bread - Randy Kimpel

What is one thing you can take away from this service?

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: EVANGELISM

As you are thinking of those you know who do not know a life with God, offer this prayer...

“Father,

Help me see your presence in everything, from my morning coffee to my difficult conversations, recognizing that your story unfolds in all of life.

Empower me to be your hands and feet today. When I hesitate, remind me:

‘If not me, then who? If not now, then when?’

Use my words, my actions, my very presence to radiate your Good News, making my life a living testimony. May your Kingdom come, in me and through me, today and always.

Amen”.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Week 1: Creator Creates ...

Read Genesis 1

1. How does Genesis 1 connect with (or confront) culture's attempt to make sense of reality?
2. How would life be different if people believed that "Creator Creates Creation?"
3. What difference does it make that God made things good?

Further reflection: The universe is not an accident. You are not an accident. There is a Creator who is personal. This Creator delights in creating. You are in whom God delights. Do you believe this?

This is a great way we can bless our community through a fun, loving experience. In this way, our campus is a blessing.

You can be a part of an outreaching community for children to learn life-long skills, character development, and making friends!

Do you want to have some fun mornings by helping with the Basketball Clinic?

WEEK 2: GLORY OF BEING HUMAN

PASTOR BRIAN ROBERTSON

JAN. 11, 2026

WORSHIP RESOURCES

“I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and ever.

Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise;
his greatness no one can fathom.

One generation commends your works to another;
they tell of your mighty acts.

They speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty—
and I will meditate on your wonderful works.

They tell of the power of your awesome works—
and I will proclaim your great deeds.

They celebrate your abundant goodness and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

My mouth will speak in praise of the Lord.
Let every creature praise his holy name for ever and ever.”

Week 2: Glory of Being Human

Read Genesis 1-2:3

1. If someone asked you what it means to be human, how would you answer?
2. What does it mean that we were made in the image/likeness of a God who is relational?
3. What does Genesis 1 teach us about Sabbath and rest as it relates to being human?

Further reflection: As you go through your week, practice intentionally seeing others as image-bearers of God. How does that change your interaction with them?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

WEEK 3: ONE COMMAND

PASTOR BRIAN ROBERTSON

JAN. 18, 2026

WORSHIP RESOURCES

“Praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord, my soul.

I will praise the Lord all my life;

I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

Do not put your trust in princes,
in human beings, who cannot save.

When their spirit departs, they return to the ground;
on that very day their plans come to nothing.

Blessed are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God.

He is the Maker of heaven and earth,
the sea, and everything in them—
he remains faithful forever.

He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

The Lord sets prisoners free,
the Lord gives sight to the blind,
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down,
the Lord loves the righteous.

The Lord watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow, but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.

The Lord reigns forever,
your God, O Zion, for all generations.

Praise the Lord.”

DINNER ROUNDS

Looking for a fun way to connect with others at Crossroads?

Dinner Rounds are monthly informal gatherings in order to casually connect with others in the church family. Many have found these life-giving and an easy place to 'know and be known'.

Families are encouraged to bring kids when possible – it is a great way to put into practice hospitality for one another and build cross-generational relationships.

We will be starting a new round of Dinner Rounds in early 2026. Look for more information soon!

WEEK 4: MESSING WITH OUR MINDS

PASTOR BRIAN ROBERTSON

JAN. 25, 2026

WORSHIP RESOURCES

“Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

For the Lord is the great God,
the great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks belong to him.

The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.

Come, let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the Lord our Maker;

for he is our God
and we are the people of his pasture,
the flock under his care.

Today, if only you would hear his voice[.]”

PASTOR BRIAN ROBERTSON

FEB. 8, 2026

WORSHIP RESOURCES

“Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,
burst into jubilant song with music;
make music to the Lord with the harp,
with the harp and the sound of singing,
with trumpets and the blast of the ram’s horn—
shout for joy before the Lord, the King.

Let the sea resound, and everything in it,
the world, and all who live in it.

Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for joy;
let them sing before the Lord,
for he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with equity.”

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

Week 6: Starting Over

Read Genesis 6-9

1. What does the fact that other cultures have flood stories say to you about the biblical story?
2. Why did the flood happen? What does this reveal about God's character?
3. What surprises you about this part of God's story?

Further reflection: Look for a rainbow this week. What does it remind you about God's faithfulness?

1. How does this story explain human pride and arrogance?
2. “Judgement is always God giving us the full implication of the path we have chosen. The story of the Tower of Babel tells us that the centrifugal forces set in motion by a shift in what is at our center pulls us apart.” What do you think about this quote?
