I choose to tell people about Jesus!

BIBLE STORY: JESUS AND THE SAMARITAN WOMAN (JOHN 4)

SETTING UP THE STORY - OBJECT LESSON

(Totally optional, but powerful!)

What You Need:

- A $1 bill (or any bill)

Try This:

- Ask: "What is this worth?"
- Crumple it up. Step on it. Smooth it back out.
- Ask again: "Is it still worth the same?"

Connect It:

"No matter what happens to this dollar, its value never changes. That's just like you. Nothing you do, or what others say, can change how valuable you are to God."

 Bible Story: Watch the lesson video together and then discuss the questions below.

- How do you think the woman felt before she met Jesus? How did she feel after?
- Have you ever felt left out, judged, or like you didn't belong? What do you think Jesus would say to you in that moment?
- Who or what do people sometimes let decide their value? (friends, school, social media, mistakes)
- What does today's story teach us about how Jesus sees people?
- If Jesus says you are loved and valuable, how should that change the way you see yourself?
- The woman couldn't keep the good news to herself—who is someone you could tell about Jesus this week?
