33 Church Membership

34 Purpose and Goal of Membership

35 Membership within the Church exists to glorify God through unified fellowship, mutual
36 edification, and faithful service in advancing the Gospel. Members are encouraged to live as 37 genuine disciples of Jesus Christ, reflecting His love and truth in their personal and collective 38 witness.

39

40 Candidacy

41 Membership in the universal Church—the Family of God—is granted through faith in the Gospel
42 of Jesus Christ, publicly expressed through baptism.

43 Membership in this local body of believers further requires:

- 44 1. Baptism by Immersion: Either previously received as a believer or administered upon 45 joining, in accordance with the historic practice of Baptist churches.
- 46 2. Agreement: Agree to cooperate harmoniously with the church’s Faith Summary
47 (available in the appendix of this document), seeking unity in faith and practice and 48 refraining from speaking or acting against it.
- 49 3. Orientation: Completion of a prospective membership orientation class is strongly
50 recommended to foster informed and engaged participation.

51 Membership may be granted through one of the following methods:

- 52 1. Transfer of Membership: From a church of like faith and order, by letter of transfer.
- 53 2. Statement of Faith: When a letter of transfer cannot be obtained—such as from a
54 dissolved or unlocatable church—upon a credible statement of faith and baptism from a
55 church of like faith and order.¹
- 56 3. Declaration of Faith: For individuals with no prior church membership or no affiliation
57 with a church of like faith and order. In this case, membership is granted upon meeting
58 the requirements above and, if needed, receiving baptism by immersion.

59 A majority vote of active members present at a regular or special business meeting (Church
60 Conference) shall be required to approve any candidate for membership.

61

¹ Like Faith and Order simply refers to a church that substantively operates and believes the same as expressed in these bylaws and our faith summary and statement.

62 Rights of Membership

63 Membership in the church includes the following rights:

- 64 1. Christian Accountability and Leadership: Members are accountable to one another in 65 their Christian walk. As well as Spiritual guidance by the church's pastors and ministers.
- 66 2. Leadership Eligibility: Church leadership is reserved for active members.
- 67 3. Voting Rights: Active members, age 16 and older, will vote on significant matters, 68 including:
- 69 ○ Annual operating budget and elected leadership.
 - 70 ○ Indebtedness for real estate purchase or construction.
 - 71 ○ Cumulative indebtedness exceeding 2% of the annual budget for other matters.²
 - 72 ○ A single purchase at or exceeding 5% of the previous fiscal year's undesignated
73 contributions.³
 - 74 ○ Amendments or restatements to the articles of incorporation, constitution, bylaws,
75 or faith summary or statement.
 - 76 ○ Disposition of substantially all church assets.
 - 77 ○ Merger or dissolution of the church.
 - 78 ○ Removal of a member following church discipline.
 - 79 ○ Confirmation or calling of pastors.
 - 80 ○ Accepting of new members
 - 81 ○ Other extraordinary actions deemed necessary by pastors or Ministry Teams.

82 Notification: All items requiring a vote will be communicated to the church at least 14 days in 83 advance.

84 Voting Method: All votes should be taken in person and are public except for Church Discipline
85 and other sensitive matters. In such cases a ballot will be used with the results reported. Unless
86 otherwise stated in the bylaws, a simple majority vote of the active members present is required
87 for passage.⁴

88 Delegation and Authorization: The Church delegates authority to the appropriate staff
89 members and/or Ministry Teams to make all other administrative and operational decisions not 90 specifically outlined above.

² The Stewardship Team is authorized with advice and consent of the pastor and trustees to enter into small-scale financial agreements on behalf of the church, such as leases for office equipment or service contracts similar in nature to cell phone or internet plans. These agreements may involve modest debt or ongoing financial commitments. While the team has discretion in such matters, the cumulative indebtedness incurred through these agreements should remain reasonable and not place undue burden on the church. The church body should be informed of any such agreements to ensure transparency and accountability.

³ In this case the idea is the expenditure of cash on hand.

⁴ The intent of this policy is twofold: (1) the results of all votes should be publicly disclosed (e.g., 60% in favor, 40% opposed), and (2) voting should ordinarily be conducted publicly, with members expressing their vote by standing, raising a hand, or speaking. However, in cases where it is necessary to confirm membership status or other sensitive matters, a ballot vote may be used.

92 Membership Expectations

93 Active membership reflects an ongoing commitment to Christ and His church. These 94 expectations are intended to foster faithful discipleship, meaningful accountability, and effective
 95 pastoral care. They are not burdens, but ordinary expressions of Christian faith and fellowship.
 96 Individuals are considered Active Members when they regularly, within their abilities and unless 97 good cause is given⁵, pursue the following:

- 98 1. Attendance of Worship Gatherings and/or Small Groups⁶
- 99 2. Volunteer service in some aspect of church life and/or programming
- 100 3. Financial contribution and support
- 101 4. Continued harmonious cooperation with the church's Faith Summary

103 Inactive Membership

104 Members who, over a period of six (6) months, neglect participation in at least three of the 105 Membership Expectations and the life of the church, without good cause, may be moved to the 106 inactive roll. This designation is not disciplinary in nature, but serves to promote responsible 107 stewardship of church membership, clarify eligibility for participation in significant
 108 congregational decisions—including financial, doctrinal, associational, and missional matters—
 109 and support appropriate pastoral awareness and care. Inactive members may not vote and are 110 ineligible for leadership roles. They may be restored to active status upon repentance,
 111 reaffirmation of commitment to the Membership Expectations, and renewed faithful
 112 participation.

114 Removal of Membership

115 Church membership is relinquished and the individual's name removed from the membership
 116 roll for any of the following reasons:

- 117 1. Death.
- 118 2. Request for removal by the member.
- 119 3. Transfer of membership to another church.
- 120 4. Failure to uphold Membership Expectations for more than 18 months, following gracious 121 admonishment⁷.
- 122 5. Unrepentant sin leading to church discipline.

123

⁵ Situations such as the unforeseen major expenses, loss of a job, nursing homes stays, rehab, professional or military service in which the individual is physically incapable of attending, legal proceedings, highly contagious illness, family obligations or the like.

⁶ Both public worship gatherings and small groups are expected of members, however attendance is only tracked in the small groups and thus is the "attendance" standard that is considered when evaluating active status

⁷ In mind here is some sort of correspondence such as an email, letter or call from the church office.

124 Church Discipline

- 125 1. Definition: Church discipline addresses members who are neglectful of their Christian
 126 duties or engage in conduct dishonoring to Jesus Christ and detrimental to the church's 127 welfare. Following the biblical instructions in Matthew 18:15–17, discipline occurs when 128 private, gracious admonition fails.
 129
- 130 2. Steps of Discipline:
- 131 ○ Private, gracious admonition — biblical correction and counsel aimed at repentance
 132 and restoration \(Colossians 1:28; 3:16; 1 Thessalonians 5:14\) — by pastors, 133 ministers, or other members.
 - 134 ○ Suspension from certain privileges (e.g., the Lord's Supper etc.) for a definite period.
 - 135 ○ Removal from leadership or office.
 - 136 ○ Removal of Membership, if necessary, will occur with a two-thirds vote of the active 137 members present at a regular or special business meeting provided the member in 138 question is given seven days advance notice and an opportunity to be heard at such 139 meeting prior to the vote.
- 140 3. Restoration: The church may restore to membership any person previously excluded, 141 upon request of the excluded person, and by two-thirds vote of active members present at
 142 a regular or special business meeting upon evidence of the excluded person's repentance
 143 and reformation
 144
- 145 4. Purpose: The purposes of church discipline are:
- 146 ○ Repentance and Growth: To encourage repentance, reconciliation, and spiritual 147 growth in the disciplined member (e.g., Proverbs 15:5, Galatians 6:1).
 - 148 ○ Instruction for Others: To provide a godly example and instruction in righteousness
 149 to the congregation (e.g., 1 Timothy 5:20, Titus 1:11).
 - 150 ○ Church Spiritual Health: To maintain the church's holiness and integrity (e.g., 151 Ephesians 5:27, 1 Corinthians 5:6–7).
 - 152 ○ Witness to Non-Believers: To uphold the church's testimony before the world (e.g., 153 Matthew 5:16, John 13:35).
 - 154 ○ Glory to God: To reflect God's holy character (e.g., Deuteronomy 5:11, 1 Peter 155 2:12).
- 156 5. Mediation: Members agree to resolve disputes with the church through mediation before 157 pursuing legal action. Mediation will:
- 158 ○ Be conducted by a mutually agreed-upon mediator.
 - 159 ○ Follow the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation (Institute for Christian 160 Conciliation).
 - 161 ○ Remain confidential, with outcomes not admissible in legal proceedings.

162 This provision does not apply to allegations of criminal conduct. Any suspected or known 163 criminal activity—including abuse, exploitation, or financial misconduct—shall be 164 reported promptly to the appropriate civil authorities, and the church will fully cooperate
165 with any investigation. Nothing in this provision is intended to discourage or prevent any 166 individual from reporting suspected criminal conduct to civil authorities.

167 This process reflects the biblical principle of resolving disputes within the church
168 community (1 Corinthians 6:1–7).

169 Pastors and Staff

170 Pastors

171 Qualifications

- 172 1. Pastors must meet the Qualifications of a Pastor. These qualifications are outlined in the 173 appendix to this document.
- 174 2. Each pastor must also be an active, giving, and serving member of the church.
- 175 3. Additional qualifications in the job description.

176 Responsibilities

177 Pastors oversee the ministry and resources of the church. Their primary focus is:

- 178 1. Prayer and the ministry of the Word (Acts 6:1–6).
- 179 2. Shepherding the congregation (1 Peter 5:1–4).
- 180 3. Examining and instructing prospective members.
- 181 4. Conducting worship services and overseeing baptism and communion.
- 182 5. Equipping members for ministry and encouraging sound doctrine.
- 183 6. Administering church discipline and promoting global missions.
- 184 7. Ensuring that all who minister the Word align with the church's fundamental convictions.

185 The Lead Pastor

- 186 1. The Lead Pastor is recognized as particularly gifted and called to full-time ministry, 187 focusing on preaching, teaching, and administration of ordinances.
- 188 2. The Lead Pastor oversees the staff, administration, and ministries of the church.

189 Lead Pastor Selection

- 190 1. A selection team of 7–9 members, nominated by the Nominating Team and approved by 191 the congregation, will work to identify a candidate after seeking advice and counsel from 192 the Texas Baptists.
- 193 2. The new Lead Pastor will be called upon a three-fourths majority vote of the active 194 members present at a duly called church conference.
- 195 3. During the interim period, the Trustees will serve as the church's administrative
196 authority. The composition of the Trustees will not change until a new Lead Pastor is
197 secured, except in cases of death, incapacity, resignation, relocation, or other
198 extraordinary circumstances that make continued service impossible, in which case a
199 replacement may be elected in accordance with these bylaws.
- 200 4. The Lead Team, as defined in these bylaws, may secure one or more individuals to cover
201 the preaching responsibilities. However, the administrative duties of the church including
202 the management of the staff are to be the responsibility of the Trustees

203 Lead Pastor Dismissal

- 204 1. The church may vacate the Lead Pastor's position by a majority vote of the Lead Team
205 (excluding the Lead Pastor) and a three-fourths majority vote of active members at a duly 206 called church conference.
- 207 2. Notice of such action must be given at least 14 days in advance during a regular Sunday
208 service, and it must be communicated by a member of the Lead Team. During this 14-day
209 period, the Lead Pastor will be placed on administrative leave.
- 210 3. The Lead Pastor must be informed of any charges and given an opportunity to address the 211 congregation.
- 212 4. The Lead Team may release the Lead Pastor earlier than the notice period, and may 213 provide an appropriate severance not to exceed 60-days of pay and benefits as determined
214 by the Human Resources Team.

215 Lead Pastor Resignation

- 216 1. The Lead Pastor may resign at any time, providing at least 14 days' notice.
- 217 2. The Lead Team may release the Lead Pastor earlier than the notice period.

218 Associate Pastors

- 219 1. Additional pastors may be called as associates to assist the Lead Pastor.
- 220 2. These roles may include titles such as Executive or Associate Pastor and are tailored to 221 support the Lead Pastor's responsibilities.

222

223 Church Staff

224 Tiers, Hiring and Termination

225 The church shall operate with three distinct tiers of staff employment, in addition to that of 226 the Lead Pastor.⁸ Each tier is primarily defined by the nature and scope of responsibility and 227 authority.

228 All personnel decisions must comply with the Human Resources Policy Manual.

⁸ The church recognizes four employment tiers: Lead Pastor, Tier One, Tier Two, and Tier Three. These tiers are solely intended to indicate employment levels and should not be interpreted as theological or ecclesiological rankings.

229 Tier One (Executive)

230 This tier includes all pastoral staff and any roles with overarching, church-wide authority. This
 231 includes, but is not limited to, the Executive Pastors, Associate Pastors and other senior 232 executive positions.

233 Hiring: Individuals in this tier require the recommendation of the Lead Pastor and must 234 be approved by a majority vote of both the Human Resources Team and the active
 235 members present at a duly called Church Conference.

236 Termination: Termination requires the action of the Lead Pastor and the approval of the 237 Lead Team. All terminations must follow the procedures outlined in the Human 238 Resources Policy Manual.

239 Tier Two (Minister/Administrator)

240 This tier includes ministers and directors with responsibility over defined areas of ministry or 241 administration.

242 Hiring: Requires the recommendation of the Lead Pastor and a majority vote of the 243 Human Resources Team. No Church Conference vote is necessary.

244 Termination: May be initiated by the Lead Pastor and/or the staff member's immediate 245 supervisor, following approval of the Human Resources Team. Terminations must adhere 246 to the Human Resources Policy Manual.

247 Tier Three (Professional)

248 This tier includes support staff employed to assist church leadership. In addition to regular staff,
 249 the church may engage contract or temporary personnel such as interns, residents, or ministry
 250 trainees. These individuals serve under the direction of a supervisor with the approval of the 251 Lead Pastor. Terms of service must align with guidelines set forth in the Human Resources
 252 Policy Manual.

253 Hiring: Conducted by the relevant Supervisor with the consent of the Lead Pastor
 254 following the notification of the Human Resources Team.

255 Termination: May occur at-will by the Supervisor and Lead Pastor, following the 256 notification of the Human Resources Team, subject to the Human Resources Policy
 257 Manual.

258 Qualifications

- 259 1. All tier one and two staff must meet the Qualifications of a Pastor or Servant Leader, as
 260 defined in the appendix of these bylaws.

- 261 2. Teach and affirm the church's faith summary and statement in all private and public 262 venues and mediums.
263 3. Other requirements as specified by the specific job description.

264 Responsibilities

- 265 1. Staff responsibilities are determined by the pastor(s) or supervisor and detailed in written 266 job descriptions.
267 2. Staff must adhere to the Church Human Resources Policy Manual issued by the Human 268 Resources Team.

269 Duration of Service

270 All church staff serve indefinitely at the discretion of the pastor(s), subject to the terms and 271 procedures set forth in the Human Resources Policy Manual.

272 Grounds for Termination

273 Staff employment may be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- 274 1. Voluntary resignation.
275 2. Dismissal due to immorality, misconduct, or failure to perform assigned duties.
276 3. Any cause or process specifically outlined in the Human Resources Policy Manual.

277 Staff Vacancies During a Lead Pastor Vacancy

278 In the event of a Tier 1 or Tier 2 staff vacancy occurring during a Lead Pastor vacancy, the 279 position may be filled on a temporary or interim basis. The Human Resources Team will 280 determine the appropriate tier designation for the interim or temporary hire.

281 Lay Leadership

282 Church Officers

283 The designation of church officers identifies those authorized to make decisions, execute
284 documents, manage church operations, and represent the church in legal and financial matters.
285 This designation provides clarity, ensures accountability, defines roles and responsibilities, and 286 establishes an orderly chain of command for effective governance and external transactions.

287
288 Church Officers and are entrusted with leadership and administrative responsibilities essential to 289 the ministry and governance of the church, as approved by the congregation.

290

291 Church Officers – Ex Officio

292 The following individuals are designated officers of the church by virtue of their calling and 293 position.

- 294 • Lead Pastor
- 295 • Tier 1 and 2 Staff

296

297

298 Church Officers – Elected Qualifications and Conduct Church Officers must:

- 299 1. Be active and faithful members, participating in worship, service, and financial support.
- 300 2. Promote unity and avoid behavior that could be perceived as unethical or divisive.
- 301 3. Meet the qualifications of a Servant Leader, as defined in the appendix of these bylaws.

302 Terms and Rotation

- 303 1. All elected officer roles, with the exception of Trustees, are elected to one-year terms.
- 304 2. Elected officers, with the exception of Trustees, are nominated annually by the 305 Nominating Team and confirmed by a majority vote of the active members present at a 306 duly called Church Conference.
- 307 3. The Trustee body shall consist of three (3) to five (5) members serving staggered five-308 year terms.
- 309 4. Trustees are nominated by the Nominating Team and confirmed by a majority vote of the 310 active members present at a duly called Church Conference.
- 311 5. All elected officers must be active members of the church in good standing for at least
312 two (2) years prior to nomination and throughout their term of service.

313 General Governance Rules

- 314 1. Elected officers may be lay or staff members
- 315 2. No individual may serve in more than one elected officer position at the same time.

316 Elected Officers

- 317 • The Clerk
- 318 • The Treasurer
- 319 • The Trustees
- 320 • The Moderator
- 321 • Deacon Chair

322

323 Officers Roles

324 Trustees

325 Role and Authority

326 The Trustees serve as the legal representatives of the congregation, safeguarding church property
 327 and overseeing legal and financial matters in accordance with applicable laws, the church's 328 governing documents, and the direction of the congregation.

329 Responsibilities

330 Trustees are authorized, as approved by the congregation via vote or Ministry Team action, to:

- 331 • Buy, sell, lease, or transfer real or personal property.
- 332 • Obtain mortgages or loans.
- 333 • Execute contracts and incur obligations of substantial value.
- 334 • Authorize disbursement of church funds.
- 335 • Monitor the proper handling of church assets.
- 336 • Review church policies to ensure they are current, comprehensive and aligned with the 337 church's mission.
- 338 • No less than two Trustees' signatures are required for all legal documents.

339 Each year the Trustees shall elect a Chairperson and a Secretary from among their members to 340 serve one-year terms. The Chairperson convenes and guides meetings and represents the 341 Trustees as needed, and the Secretary maintains accurate records of Trustee actions. Neither role
 342 may be held for consecutive terms.

343 Interim Administrative Authority

344 In the event of a Lead Pastor vacancy, the Trustees shall serve as the church's administrative⁹
 345 authority until a new Lead Pastor is called, in accordance with these bylaws and congregational 346 policy.

347

⁹ This provision does not diminish the responsibilities or authority of any staff members serving during a Lead Pastor vacancy, but is intended to support them in carrying out functions typically assigned to the Lead Pastor.

348 Treasurer349 Responsibilities:

- 350 • Receiving, preserving, and disbursing funds or things of value given to the church.
- 351 • Keeping an itemized account of all receipts and disbursements.
- 352 • Presenting a report of receipts and disbursements to the church at regular intervals.
- 353 • Ensuring periodic audits of financial records by a public accountant.

354 Financial records are the property of the church and will be retained accordingly.

355 Clerical responsibilities may be delegated to a staff member to assist the elected Treasurer.

356 All church records remain the property of the church.

358 Clerk359 Responsibilities:

- 360 • Maintain an accurate and current record of all official actions of the church.
- 361 • Maintain and safeguard the official membership roll, including records of admission,
- 362 transfer, dismissal, death, baptism, and changes in membership status.
- 363 • Record changes in membership status in coordination with the Pastors and in accordance
- 364 with the procedures outlined in these bylaws, ensuring proper pastoral review and
- 365 congregational action where required.
- 366 • Issue letters of transfer or dismissal as authorized by congregational action.
- 367 • Preserve official communications, reports, and governing documents of the church.
- 368 • Provide required notices for Church Conferences and other meetings as specified in these
- 369 bylaws.
- 370 • Prepare and submit the annual church letter to the association.

372 Clerical responsibilities may be delegated to a staff member to assist the elected Clerk.

373 All church records remain the property of the church.

375 Moderator376 Responsibilities:

377 The Moderator will serve to guide the Church Conferences and business meetings in accordance 378 with the Rules of Procedure, as defined in the appendix of these bylaws.

379 In the absence of the Moderator, the Clerk shall open the Church Conference and oversee the 380 selection of a Moderator to preside.

381

DRAFT

382 Ministry Teams

383 Definition

384 For the purposes of church governance and administration, Ministry Teams shall be defined as 385 the standing teams of lay leadership established to assist in guiding and supporting the mission,
 386 ministries, and operations of the church. This designation collectively includes all Ministry
 387 Teams, the Deacon Team, and the Lead Team.

388 Purpose

389 Ministry Teams are formed to support the vision, ministry, and operations of the church. These 390 teams serve as advisory and administrative bodies, enabling lay leaders to partner with the 391 pastoral staff in fulfilling the church's mission. Each team operates as a representative body of 392 the church, entrusted with decision-making authority within a clearly defined scope of 393 responsibility.

394 Formation and Dissolution

395 With the exception of the Deacon Team and Lead Team, Ministry Teams shall be established on 396 an as-needed basis. A Ministry Team may be dissolved when its responsibilities are assumed by 397 church staff or when its function no longer aligns with the church's mission, priorities, or 398 operational capacity. The formation and dissolution of Ministry Teams shall be recommended by 399 the Lead Team with a congregational vote to change these bylaws.

400 Qualifications

401 Members of Ministry Teams must:

- 402 1. Be active church members who meet attendance, financial contribution, and length-of-403 membership requirements as determined by the Nominating Team.
- 404 2. Meet the Qualifications of a Servant Leader, as defined in the appendix of these bylaws.

405 Composition

- 406 1. Ministry Team composition will aim to reflect the church's diversity (gender, race, 407 generation, etc.)
- 408 2. Each team will consist of six members unless otherwise defined, plus the Lead Pastor or 409 staff designate.¹⁰
- 410 3. In addition, one active member between the age of 16-18 may be nominated to serve as a
 411 non-voting member of each Ministry Team. Such non-voting members may be dismissed
 412 by the Chair for matters of sensitivity such as personnel matters.
- 413 4. Efforts will be made to ensure that members bring relevant skills and experiences to their 414 respective teams.
- 415 5. Immediate family members shall not serve concurrently on the same Ministry Team.
- 416 6. Apart from the Lead Team, members may not serve on more than one Ministry Team, be 417 employed by the church or the immediate family member of any staff member without

¹⁰ The staff delegate serves to ensure communication and continuity between staff and lay leadership, and is not present to direct, control, or act as an informant for staff.

- 418 approval by the Lead Team and a special, majority, vote of active members at a duly 419 called church conference.
- 420 7. All Ministry Team members will be nominated by the Nominating Team and elected by a 421 church vote. Nominees for the Nominating Team will be made by the Lead Team and 422 elected by church vote.

423 Terms of Service

- 424 1. Ministry Team members will serve three-year terms, with a yearly recommitment, to 425 ensure fresh perspectives and shared leadership opportunities.
- 426 2. Members may not serve consecutive terms without at least a one-year hiatus unless 427 otherwise approved by the Lead Team and a special, majority, vote of active members at 428 a duly called church conference.

429 Leadership and Expectations

- 430 1. Each team will annually select a Chairperson and a Secretary for a one-year term.
- 431 ○ The Chair sets agendas in consultation with pastoral staff and represents the team
 432 on the Lead Team.
- 433 ○ The Secretary maintains accurate minutes, submitting them to the church office 434 and the clerk, for record-keeping and team approval.
- 435 ○ Neither position may serve consecutive terms.
- 436 2. Ministry Team members are expected to:
- 437 ○ Attend all regular team meetings and respond to team communication in a timely 438 manner.
- 439 ○ Promote church unity and maintain confidentiality in discussions and decisions.

440

441 Specific Teams

442 Stewardship Team

443 Purpose: To oversee the judicious management of the church's financial resources, ensuring 444 integrity and accountability.

445 Responsibilities:

- 446 • Initiate and lead the annual budget process by setting preliminary allocations for each
 447 ministry/team, collaborating with them to refine amounts, and retaining overall 448 responsibility for budget creation while ministries/teams manage approved funds within 449 established controls.
- 450 • Present the annual budget to the congregation for approval.

- 451 • Review monthly expenditures and, in partnership with the Church Administrator¹¹,
 452 enforce adherence to budgeted spending limits with grace and flexibility while ensuring 453 financial health.
 454 • Maintain oversight of financial policies and controls.
 455 • Work with staff on significant non-budgeted expenditures and funding allocations.
 456 • Ensure regular third-party audits of the church's financial records.

457 Human Resources Team

458 Purpose: To assist pastors with personnel management and policy development.

459 Responsibilities:

- 460 • Advise and consent on staffing, tier assignments, and job descriptions and establish 461 salaries and benefits in coordination with the Stewardship Team.
 462 • Where needed approve hirings and terminations.
 463 • Review annual performance evaluations.
 464 • Oversee personnel policies, ensuring compliance with legal standards.
 465 • Assist with staff recruitment, celebrations and transitions.

466 Buildings and Grounds Team

467 Purpose: To ensure the church's physical campus remains safe, functional, and well-maintained.

468 Responsibilities:

- 469 • Oversee repairs, maintenance, and campus improvement projects.
 470 • Monitor facilities budgets and work with staff to prioritize needs.
 471 • Maintain a biennial property review and report including a personal property inventory.

472 Nominating Team

473 Purpose: To identify and present qualified candidates for all Officers, Ministry Teams and 474 Deacons.

475 Responsibilities:

- 476 • Develop and oversee the process for selecting candidates.¹²
 477 • Interview and vet all nominees to ensure alignment with church values and qualifications.
 478 • Strive for a diverse and representative pool of nominees across the whole of the ministry
 479 teams and other nominated leadership roles.

480 Missions Team

481 Purpose: To coordinate the church's local and global mission efforts.

482 Responsibilities:

- 483 • Maintain active relationships with supported missionaries and mission organizations.

¹¹ In the absence of a Church Administrator, the Stewardship Team will carry out this responsibility in cooperation with the Lead Pastor, maintaining the same standards of accountability and alignment with church leadership.

¹² It is expected that the Nominating Team will utilize the assistance of other groups and volunteers as appropriate. In particular, the Deacon Team may assist in identifying and vetting potential deacon candidates, given the number of nominees required each year.

- 484 • Obtain and review an annual report from each mission partner.
- 485 • Invite mission partner representatives to engage with the church when feasible and
- 486 economical.
- 487 • Visit foreign mission partners on the field, when feasible and economical, and report
- 488 back to the church.
- 489 • Promote missions' awareness within the church.¹³
- 490 • Administer the distribution of mission funds, including budgeted and designated
- 491 contributions not otherwise pre-allocated.

492 Safety Team

493 Purpose: To protect the church community by implementing security measures against potential
 494 physical threats and enforcing policies that ensure the safety of children and vulnerable
 495 individuals.

496 Responsibilities:

- 497 • Develop and oversee a church security plan, including emergency response protocols for
- 498 active threats.
- 499 • Train and coordinate a security response team, including collaboration with local law
- 500 enforcement and first responders.
- 501 • Regularly assess and improve the church's physical security, including access control,
- 502 surveillance, and emergency exits.
- 503 • Create and enforce policies that prevent abuse of children and vulnerable individuals by
- 504 church staff or volunteers, including background checks, screening procedures, and
- 505 training.
- 506 • Ensure all volunteers and staff working with minors complete required safety training and
- 507 adhere to established child protection policies.
- 508 • Oversee compliance with all applicable legal and insurance requirements regarding
- 509 church safety and child protection.
- 510 • Conduct periodic safety drills and evaluations to improve preparedness and response.

511

512 Deacon Team

513 Purpose: To assist pastors in ministering to the congregation's practical needs, particularly the 514 vulnerable.

515 Composition: Due to the reactive nature and scope of care ministry, this team will be comprised 516 of no less than 7 but no more than 45 men or women holding an active membership.

517 Responsibilities:

- 518 • Provide care for widows/widowers, orphans and fostering families.
- 519 • Oversee hospital and benevolence ministries.
- 520 • Encourage and strengthen the church staff.

¹³ In mind is something like - Plan and host an annual missions partnership awareness event, coordinate mission trips and service projects (including at least one local project with ministry staff), and communicate mission opportunities and updates to the congregation.

- 521 • Support other church projects as requested by the pastors.

522

523 Lead Team

524 Purpose: To provide high-level counsel and administrative oversight in extraordinary 525 circumstances.

526 Composition: Comprises the Chairperson of Ministry and Deacon Teams, all pastors, and the 527 Chairperson of the Trustees.¹⁴

528 Responsibilities:

- 529 • Advise the Lead Pastor on major projects, and long-term strategy that is not already in the 530 purview of other ministry teams or ministers.
- 531 • Ensure alignment and resolution across Ministry Teams, Deacons, Officers, and Staff and 532 arbitrate any disagreements.¹⁵
- 533 • Nominate candidates to serve on the Nominating Team.
- 534 • Assist the Trustees in church administration in the absence of a Lead Pastor.

535

536 Select Teams

537 Purpose

538 Select Teams exist to assist in accomplishing specific events, projects, or tasks that support the 539 ministries and mission of the church. They provide flexibility and mobilize members for defined
540 objectives without establishing permanent or authoritative bodies.

541 Formation

542 Any minister or staff member responsible for a specific ministry area or event may form a Select 543 Team to accomplish a designated purpose. Select Teams are not standing teams and dissolve
544 automatically upon completion of their assigned task or event.

545 Membership

546 All Select Team members must be active members of the church. Team size and composition are 547 determined by the minister or staff member overseeing the project, who may invite participants
548 based on relevant skills, interests, and availability.

549 Authority and Accountability

550 Select Teams do not carry governing or policy-making authority. They operate under the 551 direction and oversight of the minister or staff member who initiated their formation. Each Select 552 Team is accountable to that individual and, by extension, to the church's pastoral leadership.

¹⁴ There is no prohibition against bringing in non-team-members as needed.

¹⁵ The role of the Leadership Team is not to overstep boundaries and meddle in others business but rather serve as the location for overarching coordination, alignment, and, if needed, resolution.

553 Duration

554 A Select Team's existence is usually temporary, limited to the completion of its assigned task or 555 event. No Select Team may continue beyond its defined purpose without reauthorization by the 556 supervising minister or staff member.

557

558 Temporary Volunteer Appointments

559 The Lead Pastor may appoint individuals or ad-hoc volunteer teams, comprised of church
560 members, to address specific needs or business functions. These teams should generally include
561 individuals with relevant experience, education, or technical skills, and may provide advisory 562 support, perform designated tasks, or temporarily fulfill vacant staff roles on an interim basis.

563 Appointments are intended for no more than twelve (12) months, unless extended by the Lead
564 Pastor until project completion. The Lead Pastor will notify the church at a regular business
565 conference of each appointment, including the team's purpose and the names of appointed 566 volunteers.

567 Church Business

568 Church Governance

569 The Church recognizes itself as a Jesus-ruled, Pastor-led, minister¹⁶-served, and a
570 congregationally accountable body in accordance with New Testament principles.

571

572 Doctrinal Alignment

573 All pastors, ministers, and all vocational or lay leaders serving in positions of spiritual authority,
574 teaching, or governance on behalf of the church must fully affirm, support, and teach the 575 church's Faith Summary in all private and public venues and mediums.

576
577 Expectations for doctrinal alignment for other employees, contractors, and program-based staff
578 and/or volunteers shall be defined and implemented through the Church's Human Resources
579 policies and/or ministry-specific guidelines, consistent with the church's faith and mission.

580

581 Ordinances

582 Baptism

- 583 1. Baptism by immersion will be administered to those who have professed faith in Jesus
584 Christ as their Lord and Savior.
- 585 2. Baptism will be conducted as part of a regular worship service or other church gathering.
- 586 3. Baptism may be administered by any active member of the church or by an individual
587 from a church of like faith and order, with the approval of the Lead Pastor.

588 Lord's Supper

- 589 1. The church will celebrate the Lord's Supper no fewer than three times each year.
- 590 2. All who have professed faith in Jesus Christ and are in good standing with the church are 591 welcome to participate.
- 592 3. The Lord's Supper is reserved for church gatherings under the administration of the 593 pastors.

594

595 Worship Gatherings

¹⁶ In this sense minister refers to those on staff as well as those that serve in lay capacities such as a ministry team, deacons, etc.

- 596 1. Regular weekly worship gatherings will be held to glorify God, edify believers, and 597 proclaim the gospel.
 598 2. Gatherings may include prayer, worship through music, biblical teaching, and ordinances
 599 as appropriate.

600

601 Church Programming

602 The primary and anchoring programming of the church will consist of worship, evangelism,
 603 fellowship, discipleship, ministry and missions.

604

605 Business Meetings (Church Conferences)

- 606 1. The church will hold at least three Church Conferences annually to update members on 607 financial status, ministry progress, and other significant matters.
 608 2. All active members are encouraged to attend and participate in discussions and those of 609 age participate in voting.
 610 3. Additional Church Conferences may be called to address matters of significant and 611 urgent nature, as determined by the Lead Team. These may include, but are not limited
 612 to, the confirmation of Executive or Associate Pastors, or decisions regarding pressing
 613 business or financial concerns. Any other requests for agenda items must be submitted to 614 the Lead Team, who will determine their appropriateness and timing for inclusion in the 615 agenda of a subsequent regular Church Conference.

616

617 Orderly Conduct

- 618 1. Church business meetings will follow the Rules of Procedure as specified in the appendix 619 of these bylaws to ensure clarity and fairness in discussions.
 620 2. The Moderator will guide the meeting, ensuring respectful dialogue and adherence to 621 meeting procedures.

622

623 Church Finances

624 Budget Practices

- 625 1. The church will adopt an annual budget, presented by the Stewardship Team and 626 approved by a vote of active members at a duly called church conference.
 627 2. The budget will reflect the church's priorities, including missions, staff, and ministries.

628 Handling of Funds

- 629 1. All financial contributions will be counted and recorded by at least two unrelated,
 630 approved individuals, in accordance with the church's established financial-control
 631 policies.
 632 2. All expenditures must be authorized and documented according to approved financial 633 policies and standard accounting practices.

634 The Stewardship Team shall maintain financial-handling policies that require multiple
 635 individuals, rotating roles, and appropriate internal controls to prevent misuse or the appearance
 636 of impropriety.

637 Fiscal Year

638 The church's fiscal year will run from January 1 to December 31.

639

640 Operation Manual and Policies

- 641 1. Each Ministry Team will collaborate with staff to develop and maintain an operational
 642 manual detailing their specific responsibilities and procedures.
 643 2. These manuals will be reviewed biennially by the Trustees to ensure alignment with 644 church policies and objectives.

645

646 Dissolution

647 If the church ceases to exist, all remaining assets will be distributed to another Baptist body of 648 Like Faith and Order, in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and consistent with the 649 church's Faith Summary and Statement.

650

651 Amendments

652 Policies

653 Policies developed by Ministry Teams or staff may be amended by the corresponding
 654 team or employee. Amendments should be promptly submitted to the Trustees for record
 655 keeping and alignment check.

656 Bylaws

657 Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the active, eligible members
658 present at a duly called church conference. Notice of the proposed amendment, including
659 its exact wording, must be provided in writing at least two weeks in advance.

660 Constitution

661 The Constitution may be amended by two separate votes of the active members present at 662 duly called church conferences. Each vote must pass by a two-thirds majority, with a
663 minimum of 30 days between the votes. Written notice of the proposed amendment,
664 including its wording, must be provided at least two weeks prior to each vote.

665 Faith Statement

666 The Faith Summary and/or the Statement may be amended by two separate votes of the 667 active members present at duly called church conferences. Each vote must pass by a two-
668 thirds majority, with a one-year gap between the votes. Written notice, including the 669 proposed wording, must be given at least two weeks prior to each vote.

670 Appendices

671 Summary of Faith

672

673 God

674 There is one and only one living and true God. He is infinite in holiness and all other perfections.
675 He eternally exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—three persons yet one divine essence. To 676 Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience.

677

678 Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 28:19; John 1:1–3; 2 Corinthians 13:14; Ephesians 4:6.

679

680 Jesus Christ

681 Christ is the eternal Son of God and the Head of the Church. Conceived of the Holy Spirit and 682 born of the virgin Mary, He perfectly revealed God's will, lived a sinless life, died for our sins,
683 was raised the third day, ascended into heaven, and will return in power and glory to judge the 684 world and consummate His Kingdom.

685

686 Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 16:16–18; 1 Corinthians 15:3–4; Ephesians 1:22–23; Acts 1:9–11.

687

688 The Holy Scriptures

689 The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's Word, truth without any 690 mixture of error. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction, having God for its author, salvation
691 for its end, and Christ as its ultimate interpreter. It is the supreme standard by which all human 692 conduct, creeds, and opinions are to be tried.

693

694 Psalms 19:7–11; Matthew 5:18; John 17:17; 2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21.

695

696 Salvation

697 Salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. It involves regeneration,
698 justification, sanctification, and glorification. It is offered freely to all who repent of sin and trust
699 in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

700

701 John 3:16; Romans 3:23–24; Ephesians 2:8–9; Titus 3:5; Acts 4:12.

702

703 The Priesthood of Believers

704 Every believer is a priest before God, having direct access to Him through Jesus Christ. All 705 believers share as equals in the responsibility to proclaim the gospel, to serve one another, and to 706 live under the Lordship of Christ.

707

708 Exodus 19:6; 1 Peter 2:9; Hebrews 4:14–16; Revelation 1:6.

709

710 Evangelism and Missions

711 It is the duty and privilege of every believer and every church to endeavor to make disciples of 712 all nations. Because of the love of Christ, we are urgently compelled to proclaim the gospel,
713 bearing witness to His saving grace.

714

715 Matthew 9:37–38; Matthew 28:18–20; Luke 24:46–47; Acts 1:8; Romans 10:13–15.

716

717 Human Life

718 Human life is sacred from conception to natural death. Every person is fearfully and wonderfully
719 made by God in His image and is therefore endowed with dignity and worth that must be 720 respected and protected.

721

722 Genesis 1:26–27; Psalm 139:13–16; Jeremiah 1:5; Luke 12:6–7.

723

724 Gender and Humanity

725 God creates each person as male or female, both fully and equally bearing His image. Gender¹⁷ is 726 a good gift of God and is to be received with gratitude and lived according to His design.

727

728 Genesis 1:27; Genesis 2:18–24; Matthew 19:4; Mark 10:6.

729

730 Human Dignity and Love

731 Because all people are created by God and redeemed through Christ's sacrifice, every person
732 possesses inestimable worth and must be treated with justice, compassion, and Christlike love.

733

734 Micah 6:8; Matthew 22:37–39; John 13:34–35; Romans 12:10.

735

736 Marriage and Family

737 Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment before God. The 738 marriage relationship models the union of Christ and His Church, and within it husbands and 739 wives are called to love and serve one another in faithfulness.

740

741 Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:4–6; Ephesians 5:22–33; Hebrews 13:4.

742

743 The Ordinances of the Church

744 Christ has given His church two ordinances: baptism and the Lord's Supper.

745 Baptism is the immersion of a believer in water, symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified,
746 buried, and risen Savior.

747

748 The Lord's Supper is a memorial of Christ's death and a pledge of His return.

749

750 Matthew 28:19–20; Acts 2:41; Romans 6:3–5; 1 Corinthians 11:23–26.

751

¹⁷ We affirm that a person's gender is determined by their biological sex, which is rooted in their created, physical nature, including their chromosomal makeup.

752 The Church and Its Autonomy

753 A New Testament church is a local body of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the 754 faith and fellowship of the gospel. Each local church is autonomous and self-governing under the 755 Lordship of Christ, with the right to govern its own affairs and ordain its leaders.

756

757 Matthew 18:15–20; Acts 6:3–6; Acts 13:1–3; Ephesians 1:22–23.

DRAFT

758 Rules of Procedure

759 Moderator

- 760 1. The Moderator will preside during all Church Conferences.
- 761 2. The Moderator's responsibilities include:
 - 762 ○ Preserving order during discussions and proceedings.
 - 763 ○ Determining active membership for voting purposes.
 - 764 ○ Stating and presenting motions, facilitating discussions, and calling for votes.
 - 765 ○ Casting the deciding vote in the event of a tie.
 - 766 ○ Deciding all procedural questions, subject to a two-thirds majority reversal by the
 - 767 church.
- 768 3. The Moderator may address the matter at hand as a church member with a majority vote
- 769 of those present.

770 Presentation of Questions

771 All questions or issues to be considered by the church must be presented as a motion and 772 seconded before being discussed or voted upon.

773 Submission of Decisions

774 All motions related to new business, resolutions, or reports must be submitted in writing at least
775 fourteen (14) days before the scheduled meeting.

776 Decorum

- 777 1. Only one member may speak at a time, and preference will be given to the member first
- 778 recognized by the Moderator.
- 779 2. Discussion will alternate between members speaking in favor of and those opposing the
- 780 matter under consideration.

781 Public Address

- 782 1. Members wishing to speak must first be recognized by the Moderator.
- 783 2. Speakers are encouraged to use any provided amplification resources and must
- 784 respectfully address the Moderator.

785 Speaking Limits

- 786 1. No member may speak more than once on the same subject until all others wishing to
- 787 speak have been given the opportunity to do so.
- 788 2. Members may speak no more than twice on the same subject without the consent of
- 789 active members at the conference through a majority vote.

790 Voting

791 Method: All votes should be taken in person and are public except for Church Discipline and
792 other sensitive matters. In such cases a ballot will be used with the results reported. Unless
793 otherwise stated in the bylaws, a simple majority vote of the active members present is required
794 for passage.
