

BIBLE READING PLAN

PRAYING THE WORD

APOSTOLIC LETTERS

Why Do We Pray?

When we pray, we enter into a conversation God has already begun—with us—through His Word and by His Spirit. In everyday life, relationships grow through conversation. Without it, we never truly know the other person. In the same way, prayer draws us into knowing who God is and understanding His heart for us.

As Timothy Keller writes in Prayer:

“Prayer is both conversation and encounter with God... We must know the awe of praising his glory, the intimacy of finding his grace, and the struggle of asking his help, all of which lead us to know the spiritual reality of his presence.”

Prayer is not simply something we do for God—it is how we come to know God.

How Do We Pray?

Prayer begins with God’s Word. Praying the Bible connects our hearts to God’s will, gives us words when we have none, and shapes us into the likeness of Jesus. Rather than starting with our own agenda, Scripture teaches us to listen first and respond faithfully.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer puts it simply:

“We learn to pray not by praying our own words, but by praying the Word of God.”

This 2026 reading plan is designed to help us, as a church, learn the Bible by praying the prayers of the Bible together.

How We Will Pray Through the Bible This Year

Join us as we pray Scripture together through seven seasonal prayer guides:

- New Year to Lent
- Lent to Easter
- Easter to Pentecost
- A Summer in the Psalms
- The New Testament
- The Torah
- The Historical and Prophetic Books

Each day follows two movements: Anchored in the Word and Led by the Spirit—grounding us in Scripture and guiding us into prayerful response. We follow a five-day-per-week rhythm through select scriptures. The readings are intentionally shorter, creating space to slow down, listen, and pray while moving through a meaningful journey of the early Church. Each day includes simple questions and prayer prompts.

This journal is provided to help you write your prayers, reflect on God’s faithfulness, and remember how He answers as we grow together as a praying church.

Thank you for joining us this year as we pray the Bible together.

You can use this journal and/or also read/listen on the YouVersion app here... You can also download the PDF on the website.

“You take a passage of Scripture and turn it into prayer—line by line, theme by theme—until the text has shaped what you say to God.” - Timothy Keller

Our Core Value as Belmont is to be a church that is Anchored in the Word and Led by the Spirit. We have structured our Reading Plan to focus on both Anchoring ourselves in the Word and then allowing the Spirit to speak, convict, comfort and empower us to obey.

Each week will have a similar template that will allow for reading, journaling and praying.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Each day, we will spend some time sitting and meditating in the Word of God. We will utilize the spiritual practice of Lectio Divina (Latin for “Divine Reading”) to read and savor scripture as we commune with God. Take these moments to meditate, pray and contemplate on God’s Word. It’s less about an academic study and more about listening for God’s voice so that the Word can transform your heart.

After the reading, there will be some space for you to journal in response to what you just read.

SEE - This section is a place to reflect and write down phrases and/or words that stood out to you as you read the passage.

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD (the first week we will provide prompts for you to help guide in how to pray the Word).

PRAISE – Take time to praise the Lord for the attributes of God in the passage.

REPENT- As you read, repent and ask forgiveness for the sins as revealed in scripture.

ASK – Pray the Word into your life.

YIELD - Surrendering your will is the act of anchoring the Word into your heart.

OBEY – Each day, we will be asking two questions: “What do you need to do about this passage? And is there someone you need to tell?” The Holy Spirit will both convict and empower you to live conformed to the image of Jesus through His Word. But it helps clarify what the Lord is saying, and sometimes it helps to share with someone so they can pray with you.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers.

Philippians 4:6-20

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned, in whatever situation I am, to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving, except you only. Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again. Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit. I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

SEE – What prayers, thoughts, or words speak to your soul? Write them down.

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD (examples are provided below)

PRAISE: What does this passage reveal about who God is?
Praise Him for those attributes.

REPENT: Where does this passage expose sin, pride, fear, or unbelief in you?
Confess specifically.

ASK: Ask the Spirit to guide your prayer over concerns, resources, and relationships

YIELD: What control, habit, fear, or agenda must you surrender?
Submit to the Spirit's leading.

OBEY: What action will you take today? Is there someone you need to speak to, forgive, confess to, or encourage?

MONDAY - Belmont Church

Pray for repentance, unity, leadership, worship, and renewal.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers.

2 Timothy 2:1-13

You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him. An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. It is the hard-working farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops.

Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

James 1:5-8

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

James 5:13-16

Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.

DAY 6 – MONDAY SEPTEMBER 7TH

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

1 Peter 1:3-7

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 5:6-11

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

2 Peter 1:1-4

Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

1 John 2:28-3:3

And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Revelation 11:15-19

Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever.” And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, saying, “We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign. The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth.” Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

Revelation 19:1-4

After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants.” Once more they cried out, “Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up forever and ever.” And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who was seated on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!”

The angel of the Lord also said to her, “I will surely multiply your offspring so that they cannot be numbered for multitude.” And the angel of the Lord said to her, “Behold, you are pregnant and shall bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, because the Lord has listened to your affliction. He shall be a wild donkey of a man, his hand against everyone and everyone’s hand against him, and he shall dwell over against all his kinsmen.” So she called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, “You are a God of seeing,” for she said, “Truly here I have seen him who looks after me.” Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 18:22-33

So the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the Lord. Then Abraham drew near and said, “Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city. Will you then sweep away the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous who are in it? Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?” And the Lord said, “If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake.” Abraham answered and said, “Behold, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?” And he said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.” Again he spoke to him and said, “Suppose forty are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of forty I will not do it.” Then he said, “Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak. Suppose thirty are found there.” He answered, “I will not do it, if I find thirty there.” He said, “Behold, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it.” Then he said, “Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak again but this once. Suppose ten are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.” And the Lord went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 28:10-22

Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran. And he came to a certain place and stayed there that night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold, there was a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. And behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it!

And behold, the Lord stood above it and said, “I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring. Your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and your offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.” Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it.” And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.”

So early in the morning Jacob took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first. Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear, so that I come again to my father’s house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God, and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God’s house. And of all that you give me I will give a full tenth to you.”

Genesis 32:6-12

And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you, and there are four hundred men with him.” Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. He divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two camps, thinking, “If Esau comes to the one camp and attacks it, then the camp that is left will escape.”

And Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O Lord who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, that I may do you good,’ I am not worthy of the least of all the deeds of steadfast love and all the faithfulness that you have shown to your servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two camps. Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I fear him, that he may come and attack me, the mothers with the children. But you said, ‘I will surely do you good, and make your offspring as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.’”
