

BIBLE READING PLAN

PRAYING THE WORD

EASTER to PENTECOST

\Why Do We Pray?

When we pray, we enter into a conversation God has already begun—with us—through His Word and by His Spirit. In everyday life, relationships grow through conversation. Without it, we never truly know the other person. In the same way, prayer draws us into knowing who God is and understanding His heart for us.

As Timothy Keller writes in Prayer:

“Prayer is both conversation and encounter with God... We must know the awe of praising his glory, the intimacy of finding his grace, and the struggle of asking his help, all of which lead us to know the spiritual reality of his presence.”

Prayer is not simply something we do for God—it is how we come to know God.

How Do We Pray?

Prayer begins with God’s Word. Praying the Bible connects our hearts to God’s will, gives us words when we have none, and shapes us into the likeness of Jesus. Rather than starting with our own agenda, Scripture teaches us to listen first and respond faithfully.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer puts it simply:

“We learn to pray not by praying our own words, but by praying the Word of God.”

This 2026 reading plan is designed to help us, as a church, learn the Bible by praying the prayers of the Bible together.

How We Will Pray Through the Bible This Year

Join us as we pray Scripture together through seven seasonal prayer guides:

- New Year to Lent
- Lent to Easter
- Easter to Pentecost
- A Summer in the Psalms
- The Torah
- The Historical and Prophetic Books
- The New Testament

Each reading plan follows a five-day-per-week rhythm. The readings are intentionally shorter—allowing space to pray deeply—while still forming a meaningful journey through Scripture. This structure also allows you to follow a full-year Bible reading plan, such as The Bible Recap, alongside this guide.

This journal is provided to help you write your prayers, reflect on God’s faithfulness, and remember how He answers as we grow together as a praying church.

Thank you for joining us this year as we pray the Bible together.

You can use this journal and/or also read/listen on the YouVersion app here... You can also download the PDF on the website.

“You take a passage of Scripture and turn it into prayer—line by line, theme by theme—until the text has shaped what you say to God.” - Timothy Keller

Our Core Value as Belmont is to be a church that is Anchored in the Word and Led by the Spirit. We have structured our Reading Plan to focus on both Anchoring ourselves in the word and then allowing the Spirit to speak, convict, comfort and empower us to obey.

Each week will have a similar template that will allow for reading, journaling and praying.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Each day, we will spend some time sitting and meditating in the Word of God. We will utilize the spiritual practice of Lectio Divina (Latin for “Divine Reading”) to read and savor scripture as we commune with God. Take these moments to meditate, pray and contemplate on God’s word. It’s less about an academic study and more about listening for God’s voice so that the word can transform your heart.

After the reading, there will be some space for you to journal in response to what you just read.

SEE - This section is a place to reflect and write down phrases and/or words that stood out to you as you read the passage.

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD (the first week we will provide prompts for you to help guide in how to pray the word).

PRAISE – Take time to praise the Lord for the attributes of God in the passage.

REPENT- As you read, repent and ask forgiveness for the sins as revealed in scripture.

ASK – Pray the word into your life.

YIELD - Surrendering your will is the act of anchoring the word into your heart.

OBEY – Each day, we will be asking two questions: “What do you need to do about this passage? And is there someone you need to tell?” The Holy Spirit will both convict and empower you to live conformed to the image of Jesus through His word. But it helps clarify what the Lord is saying, and sometimes it helps to share with someone so they can pray with you.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers.

Acts 1:15-26

In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (the company of persons was in all about 120) and said, “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. For he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.” (Now this man acquired a field with the reward of his wickedness, and falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) “For it is written in the Book of Psalms, “‘May his camp become desolate, and let there be no one to dwell in it’; and “‘Let another take his office.’ So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these men must become with us a witness to his resurrection.” And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD (examples are provided below)

PRAISE: What does this passage reveal about who God is?
Praise Him for those attributes.

- Lord, You are the One who rules over every detail of redemption.
- You are not reacting—you are fulfilling Your purposes.
- You know every heart completely and perfectly.
- You are wise in choosing, faithful in leading, and trustworthy in all Your ways.
- I praise You because Your plans cannot fail.

REPENT: Where does this passage expose sin, pride, fear, or unbelief in you?
Confess specifically.

- Lord, forgive me for the times I act as if the work depends on me.
- Forgive my self-reliance, my need to manage outcomes, and my desire to be certain before I trust You.
- I confess my tendency to seek recognition rather than simply receive what You assign.
- Cleanse me from pride and anxious striving.

ASK: Ask the Spirit to guide your prayer over concerns, resources, and relationships

- Father, guide me in this decision...
- Father, show me where You are calling me to serve...
- Father, lead me by Your Spirit to walk faithfully in...

YIELD: What control, habit, fear, or agenda must you surrender?
Submit to the Spirit's leading.

- Lord, I surrender my need to control, to be seen, or to secure my future.
- My life and calling are not mine to construct—they are Yours to appoint.
- Place me where You desire.
- Use me as You will.
- I trust Your choosing more than my planning

OBEY: What action will you take today? Is there someone you need to speak to, forgive, confess to, or encourage?

MONDAY - Belmont Church

Pray for repentance, unity, leadership, worship, and renewal.

DAY 2 –TUESDAY, APRIL 7

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers.

Acts 4:23-31

When they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, “Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, who through the mouth of our father David, your servant, said by the Holy Spirit, “‘Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed’— for truly in this city there were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place. And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness.

SEE – What prayers, thoughts, or words speak to your soul? Write them down.

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD (examples are provided below)

PRAISE: What does this passage reveal about who God is?
Praise Him for those attributes.

- Lord you are the one who supplies us with boldness to share our faith.
- You alone turn the hearts of men back to you.
- I praise you for using the most dire situations to call us to worship you and trusting what you are doing for our lives.

REPENT: Where does this passage expose sin, pride, fear, or unbelief in you?
Confess specifically.

- Lord remove any timidity in my spirit and replace it with a vigor and boldness to share your goodness
- I repent on behalf of our community for any hesitation to share the Gospel with those around us

ASK: Ask the Spirit to guide your prayer over concerns, resources, and relationships

- Father, guide me to be bold in...
- Father, show me where You want me to step out despite persecution...
- Father, lead me by Your Spirit to walk faithfully in...

YIELD: What control, habit, fear, or agenda must you surrender?
Submit to the Spirit's leading.

- Lord give me your peace in the coming persecution
- Lead me to have your joy despite my circumstance
- Move me to encourage those who are enduring hardship and walk with them in it

OBEY: What action will you take today? Is there someone you need to speak to, forgive, confess to, or encourage?

TUESDAY - Local Community

Pray for Nashville, schools, businesses, justice, peace, and neighbor.

DAY 3 – WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

Acts 7:56-60

And he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.” But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together at him. Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And as they were stoning Stephen, he called out, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

Acts 8:18-24

Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, saying, "Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit." But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity." And Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

Acts 9:10-16

Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” And he said, “Here I am, Lord.” And the Lord said to him, “Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.” But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name.” But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name”

Acts 9:36-41

Now there was in Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which, translated, means Dorcas. She was full of good works and acts of charity. In those days she became ill and died, and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter rose and went with them. And when he arrived, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood beside him weeping and showing tunics and other garments that Dorcas made while she was with them. But Peter put them all outside, and knelt down and prayed; and turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. And he gave her his hand and raised her up. Then, calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

Acts 13:1-5

“Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a lifelong friend of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off. So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John to assist them.”

Acts 22:6-11

“As I was on my way and drew near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone around me. And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ And I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And he said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.’ Now those who were with me saw the light but did not understand the voice of the one who was speaking to me. And I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Rise, and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that is appointed for you to do.’ And since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus.

Acts 26:12-18

“In this connection I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, that shone around me and those who journeyed with me. And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’ And I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And the Lord said, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

Romans 7:19-25

For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

Romans 10:1-4

Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. Ephesians 6:10-18

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints

Colossians 1:3-12

We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

ANCHORED IN THE WORD

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

Colossians 1:15-22

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him

READ - Read the passage slowly. Twice. Underline attributes of God and prayers

Hebrews 13:20-21

Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

SEE – What prayers, thoughts, or words speak to your soul? Write them down

LED BY THE SPIRIT

P.R.A.Y. THE WORD

PRAISE: What does this passage reveal about who God is?
Praise Him for those attributes.

REPENT: Where does this passage expose sin, pride, fear, or unbelief in you?
Confess specifically.

ASK: Ask the Spirit to guide your prayer over concerns, resources, and relationships

- Supply me with peace in...
- Equip me with _____ to do your will.
- Let my work in _____ be pleasing to you.

YIELD: What control, habit, fear, or agenda must you surrender?
Submit to the Spirit's leading.

OBEY: What action will you take today? Is there someone you need to speak to, forgive, confess to, or encourage?

FRIDAY - Suffering

Pray for the vulnerable — poor, imprisoned, addicted, grieving, oppressed
