Philemon 1-25

Paul seeks forgiveness for Onesimus, who should be punished.

Paul does not use his status and authority, but bases his argument on love.

Paul explains why it is important.

Love is a risk.

The Gospel reconciles us all, making us brothers and sisters.

Reflection: Is there anyone you hold a grudge against, or feel has wronged you in your life?

Challenge: Seek one person out who has wronged you, and forgive them.
