

The Worst Day Of My Life
Job: A View From The Ashes
by Chris Famisaran

Job 1-2:13

The prologue to Job is broken into 4 parts and helps provide the structure to understanding Job as a whole.

First impressions are not always reality.

Hindsight gives us clarity when we do not understand life's curveballs.

Oftentimes we respond to situations based on the 'influence of others'

Reflection: What was the hardest season of your life, and did anyone walk alongside you during that time?

Challenge: Write down the lessons that you learned from that difficult time, and pray that you apply them to your life.
