

The Open Door

Christ Centered series week 1

by Chris Famisaran

We are called to pray personally, for our loved ones, and the world.

Mathew 6: 5-15
1 Timothy 2:1-6

Prayer is the foundation to building a relationship with God.

Prayer reminds us of our dependence on God.

Prayer is not a last-ditch effort to coerce God.

Praying for others is a form of love and reminds us of other's struggles and needs.

The Twelve People You Love

Reflection: Where can you grow in your walk with Jesus, and who are the 12 people in your life that need prayer?

Challenge: Seek God daily in prayer personally, and also for the 12 people you love.
