by Bill Aumack

1. Become genuinely interested in other people.
2. Smile.
3. Remember names.
4. Be a good listener.
5. Talk in terms of the other person's interests.

Proverbs 12:26

Good relationships are not left to chance

Look for Godly attributes

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

What kind of friend am I?

Romans 12:10

Reflection: Am I a good friend? Do I have good friends?

Challenge: Curate your close friend list. Manage that list, and make sure you're allowing only the right people to be close to you.
