

No Other Gods
10 Ways to a Better Life series
by Chris Famisaran

Exodus 20:1-3, Deuteronomy 6:4-8, Matthew 6:24

The first commandment confronts us with the idea that God has no rival.

The first commandment reveals that it is rooted in relationship.

You can't live with a divided heart.

Faithfully following God gives us identity & purpose.

Where do I look for security and identity when I am not rooted in Christ?

Reflection: What would my life look like if I truly surrendered my life to Christ, and put Him first?

Challenge: Write down one thing that is competing with God's priority. Then take action steps to ensure it does not compete with God.