2 Samuel 23

David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father's household heard about it, they went down to him there. ²All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered around him, and he became their commander. About four hundred men were with him. ¹Samuel 22:1, 2 (NIV)

I will do what's right even when the odds are against me.

2 Samuel 23:8

I will not give up even when none stand with me.

2 Samuel 23:9-10

I will stand in the gap for those who are around me.

2 Samuel 23:11-12

Reflection: Are you willing to take a stand on a moral issue? Even if it costs you something?

Challenge: Make a decision about what issues are important enough to you to 'die on that hill.'
