Galatians 3:15-29

Genesis 12, 15, 17

Habakuk 2:4

The law acted as a guide.

The law acted as a guardian.

We're all children of God.

Reflection: What unspoken expectations shape the way you live out your faith, and where might you feel as though God's love must still be earned through your efforts?

Challenge: Identify one area of your life where rules have replaced relationship, and choose to substitute that rule with an intentional act of grace-filled love.
