Group worship reminds us we are not alone, and strengthened by the collective.

“Faith cools in isolation”

Group worship reminds us of the diversity of the kingdom.

Group worship is a snapshot of what’s to come.

Reflection: Am I here to receive a message, or am I here ready to serve someone?

Challenge: This week I want you to connect with a fellow member of the church. Share a word of encouragement, a prayer request, study together, or simply check on them.
