

Mosaic series
Questions, Outlines, and Themes
Luke – The Savior We Need

Questions:

1. Luke's gospel is primarily written for a non-Jewish audience. In a similar context, how can we take this message and share it with others who do not know Jesus?
2. What does Jesus mean to you?
3. What does "salvation is meant for all" mean to you?

Outline (An Introduction to the Gospels-Mitchel G Reddish)

- I. Prologue (1:1-4)
- II. The Infancy Narratives (1:5–2:52)
- III. The Period of Preparation (3:1–4:13)
- IV. The Galilean Ministry (4:14–9:50)
- V. The Journey to Jerusalem (9:51–19:27)
- VI. The Jerusalem Ministry (19:28–21:38)
- VII. The Passion Narrative and the Resurrection Appearances (22:1–24:53)

Key Themes

God's purpose prevails in history
Salvation is meant for all
Who is this Jesus
The way of discipleship
Prayer
The Holy Spirit
Jesus reaches out to the marginalized
Wealth and poverty
Mission and message
The Church