1. When Jesus says, “Do not judge,” what kinds of judging do you think he is warning against? What might healthy discernment look like instead?
2. Jesus speaks about the plank in our own eye and the speck in someone else’s. Why is it often easier to see others’ faults than our own? What practices help us grow in self-awareness and humility?
3. How can we lovingly help others with their “specks” without becoming hypocritical or harsh?
4. In verses 7–11, Jesus invites us to ask, seek, and knock. What do these words suggest about the way God wants us to approach prayer?
