Waking up to love. Romans 13:8-14 Romans 13:8-14 ⁸Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,” and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” ¹⁰Love does	“In essentials, unity; (1 Corinthians 12:12-13) in non-essentials, liberty; (Romans 14:1) in all things, charity.” (John 13:34) Sermon QUOTE Statement: How well do you know the Love of Christ? The greater understanding we have of His love, the better we are at sharing that love with the world around us. And as followers of Christ, the ones who have come to faith in His great grace, we are indebted to show that love to others. Opening Question: What is one thing you pray for our church and why? I. Read Romans 13:8-10 1. What is a commandment that has always stuck with you, and why is that? 2. Why do we owe people love? 3. How does our knowledge of Christ and His love impact that for us? 4. How have you grown over the years in your understanding of love?

no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

¹¹And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. ¹²The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

5. Why does love your neighbor as yourself sum up the Law?
