God's Kingdom Come – The LORD is invested in your life

Week of July 12th, 2026

The LORD is invested in your life. Psalm 139 Psalm 139 ¹You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. ²You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. ³You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. ⁴Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely.	“In essentials, unity; (1 Corinthians 12:12-13) in non-essentials, liberty; (Romans 14:1) in all things, charity.” (John 13:34) Sermon QUOTE Statement: Did you know that God is invested in your life? He created you with a plan and for a purpose. Join us as we look at how Scripture speaks to these truths today. Opening Question: Who knows you the best in this world? What is that relationship like? I. Read Psalm 139:1-6 1. Why is it important to know that God knows us completely? 2. How does this speak to the type of relationship we could have with God? 3. Why is it important to realize we can't fully grasp God's knowledge of us? 4. When you think about God knowing you completely, what are some of the thoughts that come up?

⁵You hem me in behind and before,
and you lay your hand upon me.

⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful
for me,
too lofty for me to attain.

⁷Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?

⁸If I go up to the heavens, you are
there;
if I make my bed in the depths, you
are there.

⁹If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
if I settle on the far side of the sea, ¹⁰even there your hand will guide me,
your right hand will hold me fast.

¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me
and the light become night around
me,"

II. Read Psalm 139:7-12

5. What are the implications with God being everywhere?

6. When do you tend to recognize that God is with you?

7. Do you ever feel like God isn't with you? When are those times?

¹² even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day,
for darkness is as light to you.

¹³ For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴ I praise you because I am fearfully
and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.

¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from you
when I was made in the secret place,
when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw my unformed body;
all the days ordained for me were written in your book
before one of them came to be.

¹⁷ How precious to me are your thoughts, ^e God!

III. Read Psalm 139:13-14

1. People are fearfully and wonderfully made. What does that mean?

IV. Read Psalm 139:15-16

- 1. Think of the things you have walked through in life. How does knowing these things were ordained for you help you on your journey?
- 2. What is a way that you can find strength in the midst of trials?

V. Read Psalm 139:17-18

1. Why do we need to know that God's thoughts are infinite?

How vast is the sum of them!

¹⁸ Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand—
when I awake, I am still with you.

¹⁹ If only you, God, would slay the wicked!

Away from me, you who are bloodthirsty!

²⁰ They speak of you with evil intent;
your adversaries misuse your name.

²¹ Do I not hate those who hate you,
Lord,
and abhor those who are in rebellion
against you?

²² I have nothing but hatred for them;
I count them my enemies.

²³ Search me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my anxious thoughts.

2. How does this help us as we go through things in life?

VI. Read Psalm 139:19-22

- 1. Why is this a difficult passage for us as 21st century Christians?
- 2. What is the importance of hating that which is an enemy of God?
- 3. What is the importance of loving our enemies?
- 4. How do we find the balance?

VII. Read Psalm 139:23-24

- 1. Why should we ask God to search us? He already knows us?
- 2. What is David's heart in this prayer?
- 3. How can we learn from David through this Psalm?
- 4. What are your biggest take aways?

²⁴ See if there is any offensive way in
me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.
