

Jesus, ²⁰ by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, ²¹ and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, ²⁵ not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

3. Why is it important to understand we can only come to God through Jesus?

II. Read Hebrews 10:22

- 4. How is it that we are to approach God? How do we check our heart and find assurance in our faith?
- 5. Let us draw near – is a present subjunctive verb, meaning it is something we are to be presently doing, but we may or may not do it. How can we make it a point to draw near to God?
- 6. What are the benefits of drawing near to God?
- 7. Why is it important to continuing to be cleansed?

III. Read Hebrews 10:23-25

- 1. What is all of the hope that we profess?
- 2. What does it look like when we start to swerve away from the hope we profess?
- 3. Why is it important to know that He who promised is Faithful?
- 4. Why is it important to consider how we can spur one another on? Does this sound like something that comes easily or with some effort?
- 5. How do we encourage each other towards love?
- 6. How do we encourage each other towards good deeds?
- 7. Why is it important to meet with one another?
- 8. What is it all for?
