

Acts 6:8-15

What stood out from Sunday's message? Is there anything in particular that the Spirit impacted you with?

There are so many ways that Stephen's life and death model Jesus. Why do you think that is? What are we to take from it?

How is Jesus the fulfilment of the law and what the temple represents? What does that mean for you and me today?

What experience do you have with people asking questions as true seekers of truth vs. asking questions as a barrier of truth? How have you responded to it? Are there some ways you can encourage others in your group with your experience?
