

1. How could a good God allow a seven-year-old girl to die from cancer?
2. Everyone knows that Jesus was a good man and a wise teacher – – but he never claimed that he was the Son of God. What is your proof that he was?
3. Why believe the Bible when it is a book based on myths and full of contradictions and errors?
4. Didn't science and evolution put God out of a job?
5. What proof do you have that God even exists?
6. Why should I think heaven really exists and why would a loving God send people to hell?
7. How can I trust in Christianity when so many Christians are hypocrites?
8. So why are Christians so judgmental towards everyone who doesn't agree with them? I thought Jesus said, "Judge not"?
9. Why do you condemn homosexuality and transgenderism when it's clear that God made people that way and that he loves all people the same?
10. Why is abortion a problem when it's my body and I can do whatever I want with my body?
11. Can God make a rock so big that he can't lift it?
12. Men wrote the Bible. People are imperfect. Therefore, why do you believe the Bible is inerrant and inspired by God?
13. How do you know Christianity is the only true religion?
14. How can I believe in God (or Christianity) when I have so many unanswered questions?
15. If God is all-powerful, why can't evil be stopped? How come God doesn't just destroy evil?
16. Do we have any historical or eyewitness testimony about Jesus?
17. If you think God created everything, who created God?

18. If God is such a loving God, why is the path to heaven so narrow? Isn't it unloving to say Jesus is the only way to heaven?
19. Hasn't science disproved all the miracles and great events of the Bible like existence of God, Noah's ark and Adam/Eve?
20. What is your problem with relativism? Why does there have to be an "objective" truth?