Dear Charlotte District Pastors and
Membership and Evangelism Chairmen:

As most of you know, the Charlotte District Mission Society is engaged in the establishment of two new United Methodist Churches. Rev. Richard Howle is working in the Hidden Valley area and Rev. Jim Armstrong is at work in the Lansdowne-Providence Road area. Surveys are needed in these communities, and these men have called for help from all Methodists in the Charlotte District.

The Charlotte District Committee on Evangelism met last Thursday night to map plans for this giant effort. Each church is being called upon to send 4% of its membership, but since some churches may fall short, it is hoped that others might exceed this goal. Listed below, with the name of your church, is your numerical goal and the suggested place for your people to work.

We hope to be present and work with you and your people on Sunday, August 18, beginning at 2:30 p.m., at Hidden Valley School, 5100 Snow White Lane (off Hidden Valley Road), and beginning at 3:30 p.m., at Lansdowne School, Prett Court (off Lansdowne Road). The prayers and hard work of all of us will be necessary to successfully complete this important task.

Sincerely,

W.B.A. Culp,

District Secretary of Evangelism
