Sessions during the APNET conference, "Going Deeper with God" began with praise and worship songs. This worship segment was led by Bishop Lawton, Veronica Lawton and Zoë Donnelly.

The Rt. Rev. Rob Price welcomed participants to the conference and also responded to open questions during the panel discussion held together with all three presenters.

Jane Jones, Keynote Speaker, presented a series of topics on developing a closer relationship with God and discerning his voice, each talk delving deeper into discernment, prophecy and prophesying. (Top)

S.H.A.P.E. led by Bishop Lawton (lower left) helped to recognize spiritual gifts. Lectio Divina, led by Mtr. Cynthia Moore focused on spiritual meditation on God's word. (lower right)

SOUP & SERMON BEGINS

The Mineola Ministerial Alliance is once again serving up Soup & Sermon. The series is held each day during Holy Week beginning with soup. Each day, a different pastor will present a sermon. This year, Soup & Sermon will be hosted at Northside Church, 1718 North Pacific in Mineola. The schedule for the week is as follows:

Monday, Pastor John Thomas, First Methodist

Tuesday, Pastor Alan Knox, First Christian Church

Wednesday, Pastor Demetrius Boyd, St. Paul's Missionary Baptist Church

Thursday, Pastor Steve Prestridge, Northside Church

Friday, Pastor John Epps, First Methodist, Alba

All Pastors represent Mineola churches, except for Friday's presentation.

The church of each participating Pastor provides the soup on the day of his/her presentation. The series attracts 80-100 each day.

All are invited to attend. †
