It's a Celebration!

It's Celebration Sunday! The service on May 17th will honor our namesake, St. Dunstan whose feast day is on the 19th. Following the service, we will have Potluck and will celebrate the end of the Growth Campaign. To date, we have:

- Completed the purchase of the property at the corner of North Pacific and Hall Streets
- Completed demolition and removal of the house
- Removed the structure adjacent to the house and removed the trees on the property
- Paid off the loan for the purchase of the property and site demo
- Removed debris to prepare the lot for additional parking spaces. Maintenance on the lot is ongoing.

The Growth Campaign Committee has achieved great results with the support of our church family who so willingly contributed to the success of this campaign and the growth of our Parish. St. Dunstan continues to grow in faith, strength and in the love of God. We give thanks to the Lord God for his blessings on our church family and pray into the future for continued growth in his grace.

MORE TO COME!

This Easter, the sanctuary—configured to seat 120—was filled to capacity. There were small children, new families with everyone feeling the joy of worshipping.

St. Dunstan has experienced a growth in numbers but also in spirit, fellowship and in mission. Bishop Lawton has said, “Our Parish has always stepped out in faith.”

God has clearly gone before us. The story of how the Pacific Street property came to us unsolicited, unexpected and unmistakably providential—reminds us that God is revealing His plan step-by-step.

We now stand ready for God’s next steps:

- To be a beacon of Christ’s light in Mineola
- To welcome new families with warmth, joy and genuine hospitality
- To nurture children and youth in a safe, vibrant and Christ centered environment
- To create spaces for discipleship fellowship and worship for all ages

- To prepare for future generations, just as those before us prepared for a way for us.

Our next steps include improving visibility and signage on Pacific Street; creating additional parking and exploring future building plans.

St. Dunstan, a church where Christ’s love is experienced, shared, and multiplied.

~ Marcia Smith

BITS AND PIECES

There are numerous ministries at St. Dunstan that could use your help!

If you feel called to assist with altar preparations, consider joining the Altar Guild. There is also a need for acolytes and Lay Eucharistic Visitors.

All ladies at St. Dunstan are invited to attend the next ECW meeting on Thursday, May 28th at noon.

The goal of the Episcopal Church Women is two-fold, fellowship and to assist in supporting organizations that work to meet community needs.

The major fundraiser is the Annual Stew Luncheon & Gift Basket sale. This year, the event will be held on November 13th. Members vote to decide how the raised funds are distributed to assist in meeting community and parish needs.

Have you considered hosting coffee hour but don't feel up to the task? Team up with another family! Snacks, fruit, or whatever you feel would be good with coffee is all you need. A sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board outside the kitchen.

Following numerous discussions over the last year and a half and an arborist’s input, Vestry approved the changes shown below affording a full view of the St. Dunstan church sign and making way for more pragmatic landscaping in the Courtyard. At the appropriate season, the landscaping committee is considering dwarf trees with open canopies that will not exceed the roof line yet still provide some shade.

ORDER OF THE DAUGHTER’S OF THE KING

This month, the Grace Chapter of the Daughters of the King (DOK) will reaffirm their vows. The Daughters is a spiritual, praying Order for women in the Episcopal Church. The order encourages through a disciplined rule of prayer and service, to encourage in others and ourselves a deeper relationship to our Lord Jesus Christ. The Order has a three fold commitment to prayer, service and action.
Prayer: “Without me you can do nothing.”

Service: “If you knew the gift of God.”

Action: “I will make you fishers of men.”

Members continually renew their interior spiritual life as they live out their baptismal vows to follow Jesus as their Savior and Lord, to work, to pray, to witness, and to give for the spread of His kingdom.

If you are interested in becoming a member, speak with Sharon Langlais, President, or any DOK member. †
