Auction	   Healing through creativity: Supporting recovery through Recreational Therapy and Art Therapy Families who come to our services are often rebuilding after trauma, homelessness or domestic and family violence. Many arrive feeling unsafe, overwhelmed, and disconnected - and for some, words are not enough to explain what they have experienced. That's why creative therapies matter. They offer a different pathway to healing - one built on safety, expression, and connection. Two complementary programs. These programs work together to support healing at different levels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recreational Therapy creates community, connection and safety Art Therapy supports deeper individual healing and recovery • Together, they ensure people are supported both socially and personally, helping them move forward with strength and stability. Please support our Auction.

The ArtBurst committee asks artists to include D-rings about a third of the way down the sides of the frame and a taut hanging cord. This seems very specific until you consider how difficult it is just to get one picture hung up at home.
