Prayer Points:

Open Doors: Iran – Pray by name for 43-year-old Christian convert Aida Najaflou who faces multiple charges ... for praying, performing baptisms and sharing Christian content online. Pray that God would keep her under His wing. (www.opendoorscanada.org)

UnitingWorld projects: Women In Ministry (Pacific) Across the Pacific, churches are central to family and community, but leadership is predominantly male. ... We support women to study theology and seek ordination, equipping them for leadership in the Church and community.

For USA, Sudan, Israel, Palestine, Syria, Ukraine, Russia. Continue to pray for the many people impacted by ongoing war and for resolution to their situations.

Local Church Community: Chapel Hill Uniting Church

Local School Community: Chapel Hill State School

Year 12 students as they conclude their studies and acknowledge that milestone in a variety of ways. Pray for the many Scripture Union Schoolies Camps happening across the state.

Our congregation: The church service at Iona Residential Aged Care Home on Thursday morning conducted by Rev David. Continue to pray for those within our church community who have particular needs at this time.

Notices

Coffee and Chat Rev David will be at OneTable this Wednesday 10am till 11am.

REFLECTIONS – a little early! We are going to publish the December/January issue of Reflections on the 30th November in order to keep you updated on all the Christmas activities. Please have all your items in by Wednesday 26th November.

Art & Craft Exhibition – St Michael & All Angels Moggill (28 – 30 Nov.)

Exhibition with an opening night, prizes and plenty of art and craft. For more information visit St Michael and All Angels Anglican Church - ART AND CRAFT EXHIBITION

Congregational Lunch. Sunday (30 Nov. 12.45 for 1.00pm) - Everyone is invited to our annual Congregational Lunch at One Table Cafe, Churches of Christ, 41 Brookfield Road, Kenmore. Cost is $40.00 each. Please pay by cash, credit card or direct deposit by 23 November. Credit card payments after church. Cash payments, place money in an envelope with your name on it and give to Rosemary Chay. Direct deposits to Kenmore Brookfield (KUC General Account) BSB 034 055 Account 142 263 - Ref: Surname + WF Lunch. (Please note, this is a different account to the weekly giving account.) Then email rosemarychay@icloud.com or jan.billeast@bigpond.com If you need transport or can provide transport, please see Rosemary C or Jan East.

There will be a one-off change of date for Holy Communion this month. The first Sunday in December will be our Service of Lessons and Carols and Volunteer Appreciation (and will also be particularly child friendly, so bring along your grandkids/great-grandkids and/or other kids that are around you), so it seemed practical to have Holy Communion the following Sunday (14 December). My apologies for any negative impact on you of this change for December). Rev David

CHRISTMAS IS COMING – Council has decided to support again Angel Tree, the Christmas project of Prison Fellowship Australia, to give gifts to the children of family in prison. This is in addition to adding extras into our gifts for the Women's Refuge. Most of these gifts need to be collected by about the 3rd week of December. Please place your gift near the row marked for Women's Refuge or for Angel Tree.
