Open Doors: This month, you can join Open Doors in One With Them, a special time of praying for Christian captives worldwide.

Violent persecution has been increasing in Nigeria and kidnappings are becoming a common occurrence in the northern region of the country. While everyone living in the region is vulnerable to attacks and kidnappings, Christians are targeted specifically because of their faith.

... Below are some stories of girls who are currently living in captivity, it's important to learn their names and lives, be praying for them and the rest of your brothers and sisters captive in Nigeria right now.

Leah Sharibu turned 19 on May 14, 2022. It will have been her 5th birthday spent in captivity. She was kidnapped by the ISWAP faction of Boko Haram along with 109 other students from her secondary school in Dapchi on February 19, 2018. As the only Christian, she was not released because she refused to deny her faith in Jesus.

Alice Loksha Ngaddah is married and the mother of two, a boy aged 9 and a girl aged 4. She is a nurse who was working for the United Nations when she was taken by the ISWAP faction of Boko Haram on March 1, 2018.... ISWAP has declared that ... Alice ... will remain slaves for life.

April 14, 2022, marked 8 years since Boko Haram stormed the Chibok Girls' State Secondary School where 275 girls had gathered to take an exam. ... Today, around 111 of those girls remain unaccounted for....

Please be praying for these girls, that they know God is with them and has never left their side. Pray for their release from captivity, and they one day they will be welcomed back into their homes. Lift these girls up to God. (Source: www.opendoorscanada.org)
