Prayer points

Congregation:

Continue to pray for those within our church community who have particular needs at this time.

Local, national, international mission support:

Frontier Services - continue to pray for rural and remote communities who continue to recover from the impact of Cyclone Narelle. Pray for the Bush Chaplains as they offer support.

UnitingWorld who partners with the Methodist Church in Zimbabwe through Methodist Development and Relief Agency to strengthen their institutional capacity to support and protect vulnerable people by equipping church leaders with the knowledge and skills relating to child protection, gender-based violence, disability inclusion and human trafficking, and developing church-wide policies and reporting mechanisms. Open Doors: Afghanistan – Today, pray for Christian women living in Afghanistan. If an Afghan woman's faith is discovered, her life and her family can be in grave danger. Many have fled their country for neighbouring nations. Pray they will find safe places to live and provision for their needs. (Source: www.opendoorscanada.org)

Pray for the ongoing negotiations between the US and Iran hosted by Pakistan.
