

The Order for
Holy Communion

The Third Sunday after Trinity

9:00 AM

An Introduction to Worship

Welcome to St. Matthew's Church! This booklet contains the words and music of the Liturgy, along with comments to aid in the experience of worship.

From the beginning, the church gathered on Sunday to celebrate the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:20, Acts 20:7), which came to be known as "The Eucharist" or "Mass" or "Holy Communion." We worship on Sunday because it is the day Jesus rose from the dead.

Worship in the church has always been "liturgical." It consists of a pattern of movements, symbols, and words through which we experience again the central Christian mystery of dying of rising with Christ. C. S. Lewis wrote:

Every service is a structure of acts and words through which we receive a sacrament, or repent, or supplicate, or adore. And it enables us to do these things best--if you like, it "works" best--when, through long familiarity, we don't have to think about it.
(Letters to Malcolm. Chiefly on Prayer).

If you are new to the church, do not expect to understand or fully participate in worship. We offer periodic Inquirers' Classes in which give instruction in the Liturgy.

For those with children

We welcome children into worship. You can also participate in the liturgy by video in the St. Monica Pavilion, and in our Community Room, which is suitable for nursing. We also have a nursery. If you have questions, ask an usher.

Preparing for Worship

The first movement of worship is to leave our homes and come to church. This is an act of faith because we come to church to meet Christ. The experience of worship is enhanced by being in church early. This provides a time of transition to free our minds from the distractions of the world and, as Psalm 46 says, "Be still, and know that I am God." We pray that God will reveal himself to you in a new way today.

The Procession to the Altar

The first movement of the liturgy is our approach to the altar. The opening hymn orients us towards worship. We stand in attention and orient our eyes, our hearts and our minds towards God.

¶ All stand for the opening hymn.

Hymn 287

ELBING

Give praise and glory unto God,
The Father of all blessing;
His mighty wonders tell abroad,
His graciousness confessing.
With balm my inmost heart he fills,
His comfort all my anguish stills.
To God be praise and glory.

The host of heaven praiseth thee,
O Lord of all dominions;
And mortal men, on land and sea,
Beneath thy shadowing pinions,
Exult in thy creative might
That doeth all things well and right.
To God be praise and glory.

What God hath wrought to show his power
He evermore sustaineth;
He watches o'er us ev'ry hour,
His mercy never waneth.
Through all his kingdom's wide domain,
His righteousness and justice reign.
To God be praise and glory. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

In the Garden of Eden, after the first sin, Adam and Eve hid from God in the bushes (Genesis 3:8). The work of redemption begins in us when we come out from hiding into the presence of God who sees all things. We begin the liturgy by opening our hearts to God and asking him to make us clean (cf. Psalm 51:10).

Celebrant. The Lord be with you.

People. And with thy spirit.

Celebrant. Let us pray. ¶ The People kneel.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Introit

Mode VII/J. David Simmons

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, O Lord: for I am desolate, and in tribulation: look thou on mine affliction, and my travail: and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God. Psalm: Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

¶ The congregation may join in singing the Gloria Patri:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ev - er shall be; world with - out end. A - men.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, O Lord: for I am desolate, and in tribulation: look thou on mine affliction, and my travail: and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God.

The Summary of the Law

The Summary of the Law (Matt. 22:37-40) is read at the beginning of the liturgy because the law reveals our sin (Rom. 13:8), which leads us into the prayer for mercy and the experience of redemption that follows. The Summary also states the goal of our faith, to grow in love.

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

¶ All join in singing,

Kyrie eleison

T. Frederick H. Candlyn, 1936

Lord, have mercy Lord, have mercy Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Liturgy of the Word consists of a prayer or prayers (called "collects") followed by two Bible lessons. God reveals himself to us through his Word, Jesus Christ (John 1:1). We come to know Jesus through the word of God, the Bible. The revelation of Jesus through the word is the necessary preparation for communion with Jesus in the Sacrament. See Luke 24:13-31 for this pattern of revelation by word and sacrament. We receive God's revelation in the word through faith (Matt. 13:9).

Celebrant. The Lord be with you.

People. And with thy spirit.

Celebrant. Let us pray. ¶ The People kneel.

The Collect for the Third Sunday After Trinity

OLORD, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may, by thy mighty aid, be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. Peter 5:5

Reader. The Epistle is written in the fifth chapter of First St. Peter, beginning at the fifth verse.

ALL of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for "God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble." Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Reader. Here endeth the Epistle.

People. Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Edward Elgar

O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nourish thee. When I cried unto the Lord, he heard my voice: from the battle that was against me.

¶ The People stand.

Alleluia

Tone VI/JDS

Alleluia, alleluia. God is a righteous judge, strong and patient, and God is provoked every day. Alleluia.

The Gospel. St. Luke 15:1

While the gospel is announced, we make three small crosses with the thumb, one on the forehead, one on the mouth and one on the heart. This represents a prayer that the words of the gospel will transform our thinking, speaking, and our heart.

Reader. The Holy Gospel is written in the fifteenth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, beginning at the first verse.

People. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

THEN all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners and eats with them." So He spoke this parable to them, saying: "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance. Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!' Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

People. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Nicene Creed

The Nicene Creed is the Church's authoritative summary of the Faith. It is our assent to the faith expressed in God's Word and an affirmation of our baptismal vows.

¶ The Celebrant and the People say,

IBELIEVE in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father: And he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord, and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets: And I believe One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: And I look for the Resurrection of the dead: ✠ And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

The Sermon ¶ The People sit.

The sermon helps us to apply the Bible lessons to our lives, and it leads us into worship. Listen for what the Holy Spirit is saying to you.

Parents with young children who are making "joyful noises" may utilize the St. Barnabas Pavilion or the Community Room during the sermon. Following the thoughts of a sermon requires extra focus. Before and after the sermon, the "joyful noises" of children are welcome in the church!

The Offertory

¶ The Celebrant begins the Offertory by reading a passage from the Bible

In the Offertory, we offer the creation back to God in thanksgiving. This is the priestly vocation that was abandoned through sin in Genesis 3, and to which we have been restored Christ (See 1 Pet. 2:5). We offer back to the Creator what he has given to us (wheat and grape) as these have been modified by our labor (making the wheat into bread and the grape into wine). Through these symbols, the people (the creation) offer themselves back to God (the Creator).

The offering of our tithes signifies our participation in this offering (whether we give our tithe physically at church or by mail or online). Through the tithe, we give back to God the first and best of what he has given to us (cf. Gen. 4:4, Mal. 3:10). This connects us with the offering of bread and wine. As Jesus said, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matthew 6:21).

Members of the congregation may bring the bread and wine to the Altar. This action by the people highlights the truth that this is an offering of the whole church. Together, clergy and people are "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Ex. 19:6, Rev. 1:6).

In addition to the offering of the elements and our tithes, the Offertory includes two elements:

First, we offer our prayers to God in the Prayer for the Church (cf. 1 Tim. 2:1-2, Rev. 5:8). The prayers of each individual worshiper are offered to God in the prayers of the church. Thus, each worshiper should offer his or her own intercessions silently as this prayer is offered.

Second, we confess our sins. Repentance and faith prepare us to be cleansed by sacrifice of Jesus. Each worshiper should offer the prayer of confession in sorrow for the sins of thought, word, and deed of which the Holy Spirit convicts each of us. We should be mindful also of the requirement to be reconciled with others (to be in love and charity with our neighbors).

Offertory Verse

Mode III

They that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee: O praise the Lord, which dwelleth in Sion: for he forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

At the offering, anthem :

"Turn thy face from my sins"

Attwood

Sung by Anne McClintic, Emilio Sandoval, and Chris Walters

Turn thy face from my sins and put out all my misdeads. Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from my presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Hymnal 139

OLD HUNDRETH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow Praise Him all creatures here below Praise Him above ye heavenly host Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer for The Church

¶ The Celebrant mentions the prayer intentions. Then he says,

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church.

¶ The People remain standing for the following prayer.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our alms and oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

¶ A extended pause is observed here for the mention of specific names of people for whom the church is praying.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service,

And here we do give unto thee, O Lord, most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy Saints, and chiefly in the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord and God, and in the holy Patriarchs, Prophets', Apostles and Martyrs; beseeching thee to give us grace, that we, rejoicing in the Communion of the Saints, and following the good examples of those who have served thee here, may be partakers with them of thy heavenly kingdom: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Invitation to Confession

First Corinthians 11:17-34 says, "Let a man examine himself and so let him eat of that bread or drink of that cup." The requirement that we be in love and charity with our neighbors comes from Matthew 5:23-24, where Jesus mandates that we be reconciled with our brother before we offer our gift on the altar.

Through confession, we "Put off the old Adam" in preparation to "put on" Christ through the grace of the Sacrament (Eph. 4:22-24).

YE who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, devoutly kneeling.

General Confession

¶ Said by All.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Absolution

¶ Given by the Bishop or Celebrant.

Christ gave the apostles authority to forgive sins (John 20:22-23. See BCP p. 546). Forgiveness does not depend upon whether we feel forgiven. Forgiveness depends upon the promise of Christ, of which the Priest is an outward and visible sign.

Absolution is given with the sign of the cross; we receive the absolution from Christ through his minister by making the sign of the cross.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all who truly turn to him.

COME unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what Saint Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I Tim. I. 15.

Hear also what Saint John saith.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our sins. I St. John ii. 1, 2.

Sursum Corda

The musical score is written on six staves, alternating between Priest and People parts. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words underlined. The text is as follows:

Priest
The Lord be with you.

People
And with thy spirit.

Priest
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them up un - - to the Lord.

Priest
Let us give thanks un - - - to our Lord God.

People
It is meet and right so to do.

Celebrant. It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God,

WHO, with thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Substance. For that which we believe in thy glory, O Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference of inequality.

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

The Sanctus and Benedictus

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is from Isaiah 6:3--see also Revelation 4:8). The Benedictus (Blessed is he that cometh) is from Psalm 118:26 as these words were applied to Jesus during his triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Matthew. 21:9). We welcome Jesus with these same words as he comes to us in the Sacrament.

Sanctus and Benedictus

John Merbecke, 1549

HO - LY, HO - LY, - HO - LY, Lord God of hosts,
Heav'n and earth are full of thy glo - ry:
Glo - ry be to thee, O Lord Most High.
Bless - ed is he that com - eth in the Name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the High - est.

Prayer of Consecration

ALL glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again: For in the night in which he was betrayed he took Bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you; Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise, after supper, he took the Cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Oblation

WHEREFORE, O Lord and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy Divine Majesty, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same.

Invocation

AND we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

AND we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

REMEMBER O Lord, thy servants and handmaidens who have gone before us with the sign of faith and are at rest in the sleep of peace (especially...). To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, we beseech thee to grant a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace. And vouchsafe to give unto us some portion and fellowship with thy holy Apostles and Martyrs, and with all thy Saints; within whose fellowship we beseech thee to admit us.

AND although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Through the Prayer of Consecration the elements become what Jesus meant them to become when he said, "This is my body" and "This is my blood." Christ's presence depends on his promise, not on whether the communicant thinks or feels that Jesus is present.

1 Corinthians 11:25 says "as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup you proclaim the Lord's death till he comes." The Eucharist looks forward to the Second Coming and the heavenly feast (Revelation 19:9). When Jesus comes again in glory, the Eucharistic foretaste will give way to the reality of God's kingdom.

And now, as our Saviour Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

¶The Lord's Prayer may be said or sung.

At The Fraction or Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant. The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People. And with thy spirit.

Agnus Dei

John Merbecke, 1549

O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up-on us. O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up-on us. O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins but the faith of thy church and grant unto that peace and unity which is according to thy will. who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God world without end. Amen.

¶ The Celebrant and the People say,

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

A Note on the Reception of Holy Communion. A person becomes a member of the Church, the Body of Christ, through baptism (BCP 290, 1 Corinthians 12:13, Colossians 2:12). Since the beginning of the Church, the sacrament of Baptism has been completed by Confirmation, the laying on of hands by a bishop in Apostolic Succession (Acts 8:14-17, Hebrews 6:2).

Baptized Christians who are committed and practicing members of a church and fulfill the requirements of the Invitation but have not yet been confirmed, may be admitted to Communion by permission of the rector. Those who are not receiving Communion are invited to come to the communion rail, with arms folded across the chest, for a blessing.

The Communion

¶ The Celebrant presents the Body and Blood of Christ and says,

BEHOLD the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.

¶ The People come to the altar rail by rows, beginning with the front row, to receive Holy Communion as directed by the ushers. To receive a blessing, kneel at the altar rail with your arms folded across your chest.

Communion Verse

Tone I/J. David Simmons

I say unto you: There is joy in the presence of the Angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

At the communion, anthem:

"To Thee, O Lord My God"

Benedetto Marcello

Sung by Emilio Sandoval and Chris Walters

To Thee, O Lord My God, will I lift up my soul. My God, I have put my trust in thee: let me never be confounded.

¶ When the Bishop or Celebrant administers the Body of Christ, he says,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister who delivers the Cup says,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ After Communion, the following hymn is sung, kneeling.

At the communion, Hymn 213

ST. AGNES

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone,
But by thy word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Thy Body and thy Blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food. Amen.

The Thanksgiving

We thank God for this grace of salvation (cf. Eph. 2:8). Grace gives us a vocation to love as we have been loved. (Jn. 13:34)." We leave the altar as "witnesses" for Christ in the world (Acts 1:8). Good works motivated by love are the fruit of genuine worship (cf. Ephesians 2:10, Titus 2:14).

Celebrant. Let us pray.

¶ The People kneel. All say,

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of his most precious death and passion. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ The Celebrant may add another prayer before the final blessing

The Blessing

The blessing comes from Philippians 4:7. Peace is “Shalom,” the inner peace that results from reconciliation with God through Jesus. We are not promised the absence of problems or pain in life. We are promised that Christ will be with us all things (See John 20:21, 26, 14:27, 16:33).

THE Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

LONDON NEW

God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform:
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

Deep in unfathomable mines,
With never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sov'reign will.

Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour:
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

South County Dinner

If you're new to our church, or want to get more connected, the South County Group is a great place to meet new people and enjoy dinner together in a casual, relaxed atmosphere. Hosted by the Digiambattista family, the group meets every fourth Sunday of the month in Mission Viejo. The next gathering is next Sunday, June 28th, from 4:00 to 8:00 PM, beginning with evening prayer and dinner to follow. Families with children are welcome. RSVP by contacting Dcn. Andrew: andrew@stmatthewsnewport.com.

Women's Group – New Book Study

Our Women's Group is a great place to get to know other women at our church and develop deeper connections. We meet on the first and third Sundays of the month, upstairs in the Bishop's Study, from 10:45 AM to 12:00 PM. Beginning Sunday, July 19th, we will be starting a new book called Into the Heart of Romans by N. T. Wright. Women of all ages are invited to join us as we read the book aloud together and discuss as we go. No outside preparation is necessary, and you can join the group at any time. Zoom participation is also available for those who are unable to attend in person. Contact Constance with any questions: imago.design@me.com.

Note: You can purchase Into the Heart of Romans from the St. Matthew's book trolley, available after each service on the first and third Sundays of the month.

A Note on Visitations

From time to time, the circumstances of life take us out of our usual rhythms. When that happens, the disruptions to our familiar patterns can snowball rapidly. The most unfortunate way this happens is when we are prevented from being with our church community and from receiving the grace of the sacraments. It is for this reason that the church takes very seriously the ministry of Visitation. If you or someone you know is prevented from being at church on Sunday for the Eucharist and fellowship, if they could use a visit from our pastoral staff to bring them Communion, Anointing, or just friendly conversation, we are ready and eager to provide what is needed. To request a visit for yourself or for someone you know, please reach out to one of the following people as soon as the need arises and we will quickly respond to make the arrangements.

Pastoral Meetings

Our ministry continues to be centered on spiritual direction. Spiritual direction focuses on discerning God's voice in and through the challenges and joys of life. In a time of isolation it is sometimes helpful just to talk with someone. We would love to talk with you about life, prayer or anything. Just email us and we will set up a video conference, phone call, or in person meeting.
