

The Order for
Holy Communion

The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

9:00 AM

An Introduction to Worship

Welcome to St. Matthew's Church! This booklet contains the words and music of the Liturgy, along with comments to aid in the experience of worship.

From the beginning, the church gathered on Sunday to celebrate the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:20, Acts 20:7), which came to be known as "The Eucharist" or "Mass" or "Holy Communion." We worship on Sunday because it is the day Jesus rose from the dead.

Worship in the church has always been "liturgical." It consists of a pattern of movements, symbols, and words through which we experience again the central Christian mystery of dying of rising with Christ. C. S. Lewis wrote:

Every service is a structure of acts and words through which we receive a sacrament, or repent, or supplicate, or adore. And it enables us to do these things best--if you like, it "works" best--when, through long familiarity, we don't have to think about it.
(Letters to Malcolm. Chiefly on Prayer).

If you are new to the church, do not expect to understand or fully participate in worship. We offer periodic Inquirers' Classes in which give instruction in the Liturgy.

For those with children

We welcome children into worship. You can also participate in the liturgy by video in the St. Monica Pavilion, and in our Community Room, which is suitable for nursing. We also have a nursery. If you have questions, ask an usher.

Preparing for Worship

The first movement of worship is to leave our homes and come to church. This is an act of faith because we come to church to meet Christ. The experience of worship is enhanced by being in church early. This provides a time of transition to free our minds from the distractions of the world and, as Psalm 46 says, "Be still, and know that I am God." We pray that God will reveal himself to you in a new way today.

The Procession to the Altar

The first movement of the liturgy is our approach to the altar. The opening hymn orients us towards worship. We stand in attention and orient our eyes, our hearts and our minds towards God.

¶ All stand for the opening hymn.

Hymn 776

AZMON

O for a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!

Jesus, the Name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
Tis music in the sinner's ears,
Tis life and health and peace.

He speaks; and, list'ning to his voice,
New life the dead receive,
The mournful broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy!

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim
And spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy Name. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

In the Garden of Eden, after the first sin, Adam and Eve hid from God in the bushes (Genesis 3:8). The work of redemption begins in us when we come out from hiding into the presence of God who sees all things. We begin the liturgy by opening our hearts to God and asking him to make us clean (cf. Psalm 51:10).

Celebrant. The Lord be with you.

People. And with thy spirit.

Celebrant. Let us pray. ¶ The People kneel.

ALmighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Introit

Tone VII

Haste thee, O God, unto my rescue and save me; O Lord, make haste to my deliverance: let mine enemies be ashamed and confounded, that seek after my soul. Psalm 70: Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion: that wish me evil.

¶ The congregation may join in singing the Gloria Patri:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost;

The first line of musical notation for the Gloria Patri. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The lyrics are written below the notes.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ev - er shall be; world with - out end. A - men.

The second line of musical notation for the Gloria Patri. It continues the melody from the first line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Haste thee, O God, unto my rescue and save me; O Lord, make haste to my deliverance: let mine enemies be ashamed and confounded, that seek after my soul.

The Summary of the Law

The Summary of the Law (Matt. 22:37-40) is read at the beginning of the liturgy because the law reveals our sin (Rom. 13:8), which leads us into the prayer for mercy and the experience of redemption that follows. The Summary also states the goal of our faith, to grow in love.

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

¶ All join in singing,

Kyrie eleison

T. Frederick H. Candlyn, 1936

Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ The People stand to sing,

Gloria in excelsis

Old Scottish Chant

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into two parts: 'Minister:' and 'All:'. The 'Minister:' part has the lyrics 'Glo - ry be to God on high,'. The 'All:' part has the lyrics 'and on earth peace, good will towards men.' The melody is simple and homophonic, with the bass staff providing a harmonic accompaniment. The 'All:' part begins with a repeat sign (two dots) and ends with a double bar line.

Minister:

Glo - ry be to God on high,

All:

and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee,
 we bless thee, we wor-ship thee,
 we glorify thee,
 we give thanks to thee forthy great glo - ry,

O Lord God, heav'n - ly King, God the Father Al - migh - ty.

O Lord,
the only-begotten Son, Je - sus Christ;

O Lord God,
Lamb of God, Son of the Fa - ther,

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, re - ceive our prayer.

This musical system consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a G-clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is composed of half and quarter notes. The bass staff begins with an F-clef and a key signature of one flat. The accompaniment is primarily composed of chords and moving lines in the lower register.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy up - on us.

This musical system continues the composition. The treble staff features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The text is aligned with the notes in the treble staff.

For thou on - ly art holy; thou on - ly art the Lord;

This musical system continues the composition. The treble staff features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The text is aligned with the notes in the treble staff.

thou only, O Christ, with the Ho-ly Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

This musical system concludes the piece. The treble staff features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The text is aligned with the notes in the treble staff. The system ends with a double bar line.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Liturgy of the Word consists of a prayer or prayers (called "collects") followed by two Bible lessons. God reveals himself to us through his Word, Jesus Christ (John 1:1). We come to know Jesus through the word of God, the Bible. The revelation of Jesus through the word is the necessary preparation for communion with Jesus in the Sacrament. See Luke 24:13-31 for this pattern of revelation by word and sacrament. We receive God's revelation in the word through faith (Matt. 13:9).

Celebrant. The Lord be with you.

People. And with thy spirit.

Celebrant. Let us pray. ¶ The People kneel.

The Collect for the Twelfth Sunday After Trinity

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord.
Amen.

The Epistle. 2 Corinthians 3:4

Reader. The Epistle is written in the third chapter of Second Corinthians, beginning at the fourth verse.

WE have such trust through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, who also made us sufficient as ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. But if the ministry of death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away, how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry of righteousness exceeds much more in glory.

Reader. Here endeth the Epistle.

People. Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Tone V

I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof and be glad. I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

¶ The People stand.

Alleluia

Tone IV

Alleluia, alleluia. O Lord God of my salvation: I have cried day and night before thee. Alleluia.

The Gospel. St. Mark 7:31

While the gospel is announced, we make three small crosses with the thumb, one on the forehead, one on the mouth and one on the heart. This represents a prayer that the words of the gospel will transform our thinking, speaking, and our heart.

Reader. The Holy Gospel is written in the seventh chapter of the Gospel according to St. Mark , beginning at the thirty-first verse.

People. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

JESUS departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee. Then they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him. And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and He spat and touched his tongue. Then, looking up to heaven, He sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly. Then He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

People. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Nicene Creed

The Nicene Creed is the Church's authoritative summary of the Faith. It is our assent to the faith expressed in God's Word and an affirmation of our baptismal vows.

¶ The Celebrant and the People say,

IBELIEVE in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father: And he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord, and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets: And I believe One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: And I look for the Resurrection of the dead: ✠ And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

The Sermon ¶ The People sit.

The sermon helps us to apply the Bible lessons to our lives, and it leads us into worship. Listen for what the Holy Spirit is saying to you.

Parents with young children who are making "joyful noises" may utilize the St. Barnabas Pavilion or the Community Room during the sermon. Following the thoughts of a sermon requires extra focus. Before and after the sermon, the "joyful noises" of children are welcome in the church!

The Offertory

¶ The Celebrant begins the Offertory by reading a passage from the Bible

In the Offertory, we offer the creation back to God in thanksgiving. This is the priestly vocation that was abandoned through sin in Genesis 3, and to which we have been restored Christ (See 1 Pet. 2:5). We offer back to the Creator what he has given to us (wheat and grape) as these have been modified by our labor (making the wheat into bread and the grape into wine). Through these symbols, the people (the creation) offer themselves back to God (the Creator).

The offering of our tithes signifies our participation in this offering (whether we give our tithe physically at church or by mail or online). Through the tithe, we give back to God the first and best of what he has given to us (cf. Gen. 4:4, Mal. 3:10). This connects us with the offering of bread and wine. As Jesus said, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matthew 6:21).

Members of the congregation may bring the bread and wine to the Altar. This action by the people highlights the truth that this is an offering of the whole church. Together, clergy and people are "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Ex. 19:6, Rev. 1:6).

In addition to the offering of the elements and our tithes, the Offertory includes two elements:

First, we offer our prayers to God in the Prayer for the Church (cf. 1 Tim. 2:1-2, Rev. 5:8). The prayers of each individual worshiper are offered to God in the prayers of the church. Thus, each worshiper should offer his or her own intercessions silently as this prayer is offered.

Second, we confess our sins. Repentance and faith prepare us to be cleansed by sacrifice of Jesus. Each worshiper should offer the prayer of confession in sorrow for the sins of thought, word, and deed of which the Holy Spirit convicts each of us. We should be mindful also of the requirement to be reconciled with others (to be in love and charity with our neighbors).

Offertory Verse

Tone II

Moses besought the Lord his God and said: Why, O Lord doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people? Turn from thy fierce wrath; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: to whom thou swarest to give a land flowing with milk and honey. And the Lord repented of the evil: which he thought to do unto his people.

At the offering, anthem:

"O Come Hither"

Maurice Greene

sung by Chris Walters and Anne McClintic

O come hither and hearken all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul. God hath heard me and consider'd the voice of my prayer.

At the presentation, hymn 139

OLD HUNDRETH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow Praise Him all creatures here below Praise Him above ye heavenly host Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer for The Church

¶ The Celebrant mentions the prayer intentions. Then he says,

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church.

¶ The People remain standing for the following prayer.

ALmighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our alms and oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

¶ A extended pause is observed here for the mention of specific names of people for whom the church is praying.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service,

And here we do give unto thee, O Lord, most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy Saints, and chiefly in the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord and God, and in the holy Patriarchs, Prophets', Apostles and Martyrs; beseeching thee to give us grace. that we, rejoicing in the Communion of the Saints, and following the good examples of those who have served thee here, may be partakers with them of thy heavenly kingdom: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Invitation to Confession

First Corinthians 11:17-34 says, "Let a man examine himself and so let him eat of that bread or drink of that cup." The requirement that we be in love and charity with our neighbors comes from Matthew 5:23-24, where Jesus mandates that we be reconciled with our brother before we offer our gift on the altar.

Through confession, we "Put off the old Adam" in preparation to "put on" Christ through the grace of the Sacrament (Eph. 4:22-24).

YE who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, devoutly kneeling.

General Confession

¶ Said by All.

ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Absolution

¶ Given by the Bishop or Celebrant.

Christ gave the apostles authority to forgive sins (John 20:22-23. See BCP p. 546). Forgiveness does not depend upon whether we feel forgiven. Forgiveness depends upon the promise of Christ, of which the Priest is an outward and visible sign.

Absolution is given with the sign of the cross; we receive the absolution from Christ through his minister by making the sign of the cross.

ALmighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all who truly turn to him.

COME unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what Saint Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I Tim. I. 15.

Hear also what Saint John saith.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our sins. I St. John ii. 1, 2.

Sursum Corda

The musical score is written on six staves, alternating between a Priest and a People. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are as follows:

Priest

People
And _____ with thy _____ spi - - - - - rit.

Priest
Lift _____ up _____ your _____ hearts. _____

People
We lift _____ them up un - - to _____ the Lord. _____

People
It is meet _____ and right so _____ to do. _____

Celebrant. It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God,

WHO, with thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Substance. For that which we believe in thy glory, O Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference of inequality.

or

FOR the precious death and merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and for the sending to us of the Holy Ghost, the Comforter; who are one with thee in thy Eternal Godhead

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

The Sanctus and Benedictus

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is from Isaiah 6:3--see also Revelation 4:8). The Benedictus (Blessed is he that cometh) is from Psalm 118:26 as these words were applied to Jesus during his triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Matthew. 21:9). We welcome Jesus with these same words as he comes to us in the Sacrament.

Sanctus and Benedictus

John Merbecke, 1549

HO - LY, HO - LY, - HO - LY, Lord God of hosts,
Heav'n and earth are full of thy glo - ry:
Glo - ry be to thee, O Lord Most High.
Bless - ed is he that com - eth in the Name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the High - est.

Prayer of Consecration

ALL glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again: For in the night in which he was betrayed he took Bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you; Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise, after supper, he took the Cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Oblation

WHEREFORE, O Lord and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy Divine Majesty, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same.

Invocation

AND we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

AND we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

REMEMBER O Lord, thy servants and handmaidens who have gone before us with the sign of faith and are at rest in the sleep of peace (especially...). To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, we beseech thee to grant a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace. And vouchsafe to give unto us some portion and fellowship with thy holy Apostles and Martyrs, and with all thy Saints; within whose fellowship we beseech thee to admit us.

AND although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Through the Prayer of Consecration the elements become what Jesus meant them to become when he said, "This is my body" and "This is my blood." Christ's presence depends on his promise, not on whether the communicant thinks or feels that Jesus is present.

1 Corinthians 11:25 says "as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup you proclaim the Lord's death till he comes." The Eucharist looks forward to the Second Coming and the heavenly feast (Revelation 19:9). When Jesus comes again in glory, the Eucharistic foretaste will give way to the reality of God's kingdom.

And now, as our Saviour Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

¶The Lord's Prayer may be said or sung.

The Lord's Prayer

Plainsong, very ancient

At The Fraction or Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant. The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People. And with thy spirit.

Agnus Dei

John Merbecke, 1549

O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up-on us. O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up-on us. O Lamb of God, that ta-kest a-way the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins but the faith of thy church and grant unto that peace and unity which is according to thy will. who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God world without end. Amen.

¶ The Celebrant and the People say,

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

A Note on the Reception of Holy Communion. A person becomes a member of the Church, the Body of Christ, through baptism (BCP 290, 1 Corinthians 12:13, Colossians 2:12). Since the beginning of the Church, the sacrament of Baptism has been completed by Confirmation, the laying on of hands by a bishop in Apostolic Succession (Acts 8:14-17, Hebrews 6:2).

Baptized Christians who are committed and practicing members of a church and fulfill the requirements of the Invitation but have not yet been confirmed, may be admitted to Communion by permission of the rector. Those who are not receiving Communion are invited to come to the communion rail, with arms folded across the chest, for a blessing.

The Communion

¶ The Celebrant presents the Body and Blood of Christ and says,

BEHOLD the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.

¶ The People come to the altar rail by rows, beginning with the front row, to receive Holy Communion as directed by the ushers. To receive a blessing, kneel at the altar rail with your arms folded across your chest.

Communion Verse

Mode I

The earth, O Lord, is filled with the fruit of thy works: that thou mayest bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man. And oil to make him a cheerful countenance: and bread to strengthen man's heart.

At the communion, anthem:

"Most Glorious Lord of Life"

William H. Harris

Most glorious Lord of life, that on this day didst make thy triumph over death and sin, and having harrowed hell, didst bring away captivity thence captive, us to win. This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin, And grant that we for whom Thou didst die, Being with thy dear blood clean washed from sin, May live forever in felicity. And that Thy love we weighing worthily. May likewise love Thee for the same again; and for Thy sake that all like dear didst buy, with love may one another entertain. So let us love, dear Love, like as we ought; Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

¶ When the Bishop or Celebrant administers the Body of Christ, he says,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister who delivers the Cup says,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ After Communion, the following hymn is sung, kneeling.

At the communion, Hymn 201

MALABAR

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands
That holy things have taken;
Let ears that now have heard thy songs
To clamor never waken.

Lord, may the tongues which “Holy” sang,
Keep free from all deceiving;
The eyes which saw thy love be bright,
Thy blessed hope perceiving.

The feet that tread thy hallowed courts
From light do thou not banish;
The bodies by the Body fed
With thy new life replenish. Amen.

The Thanksgiving

We thank God for this grace of salvation (cf. Eph. 2:8). Grace gives us a vocation to love as we have been loved. (Jn. 13:34)." We leave the altar as "witnesses" for Christ in the world (Acts 1:8). Good works motivated by love are the fruit of genuine worship (cf. Ephesians 2:10, Titus 2:14).

Celebrant. Let us pray.

¶ The People kneel. All say,

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of his most precious death and passion. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ The Celebrant may add another prayer before the final blessing.

The Blessing

The blessing comes from Philippians 4:7. Peace is “Shalom,” the inner peace that results from reconciliation with God through Jesus. We are not promised the absence of problems or pain in life. We are promised that Christ will be with us all things (See John 20:21, 26, 14:27, 16:33).

THE Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Hymn 542

DUKE STREET

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run,
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With ev'ry morning sacrifice.

People and realms of ev'ry tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his Name.

Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose their chains,
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King,
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

South County Dinner

If you're new to our church, or want to get more connected, the South County Group is a great place to meet new people and enjoy dinner together in a casual, relaxed atmosphere. The group meets every fourth Sunday of the month at rotating homes in South Orange County. The next gathering will be hosted by the Digiambattista family in Mission Viejo, today, August 23rd, from 4:00 to 8:00 PM, beginning with evening prayer and dinner to follow. Families with children are welcome. RSVP by contacting the Digiambattistas or Dcn. Andrew: andrew@stmatthewsnewport.com.

A Note on Visitations

From time to time, the circumstances of life take us out of our usual rhythms. When that happens, the disruptions to our familiar patterns can snowball rapidly. The most unfortunate way this happens is when we are prevented from being with our church community and from receiving the grace of the sacraments. It is for this reason that the church takes very seriously the ministry of Visitation. If you or someone you know is prevented from being at church on Sunday for the Eucharist and fellowship, if they could use a visit from our pastoral staff to bring them Communion, Anointing, or just friendly conversation, we are ready and eager to provide what is needed. To request a visit for yourself or for someone you know, please reach out to one of the following people as soon as the need arises and we will quickly respond to make the arrangements.

Pastoral Meetings

Our ministry continues to be centered on spiritual direction. Spiritual direction focuses on discerning God's voice in and through the challenges and joys of life. In a time of isolation it is sometimes helpful just to talk with someone. We would love to talk with you about life, prayer or anything. Just email us and we will set up a video conference, phone call, or in person meeting.
