We Love Local
Missions
2026!

Kairos International is a non-denominational, faith-based ministry to men, women and youth who are presently incarcerated. It is a ministry where the team members demonstrate the love of Christ through service and sharing. The weekend consists of four days within the prison compound, and during those days the participants will encounter self; encounter Christ; and encounter others. The ultimate vision of Kairos is to make disciples within the prison where they will minister to each other.

The transforming power of the Holy Spirit is so evident throughout the weekend. Each team member is blessed to be a witness to this transformation. We have witnessed anger turned to joy, apathy turned to praise and worship. Lives are changed.

How can you support this ministry? Prayer is foremost, prayers for each of the 36 participants chosen, the team members, and the prison staff. Monetary support, the cost of each weekend is approximately $5000. Donations can be made via the Church Center web site. Meal tickets can be purchased for $5 each, and we feed each participant and team member 9 meals. Prayer chains and placemats for meal time are always a highlight for the weekend.

Called Charge Conference April 20th / 6:30pm / Ministry Center

Forest Hills Church, I've got great news! It's time to have a Called Charge Conference...and it's for great reasons. We have a few business items that need to be discussed and voted on, and both votes stem from GROWTH! What a great reason to have a meeting.

SPRC and Finance have both agreed to expand the responsibilities in several staffing situations, and one of our staff members is sensing a call to vocational pastoral ministry. Both of these situations require a vote. Our Administrative Council members will vote on the budget adjustment, and church members in attendance will vote to certify our candidate for ministry.
