Kairos International is a non-denominational, faith-based ministry to men, women and youth who are presently incarcerated. It is a ministry where the team members demonstrate the love of Christ through service and sharing. The weekend consists of four days within the prison compound, and during those days the participants will encounter self; encounter Christ; and encounter others. The ultimate vision of Kairos is to make disciples within the prison where they will minister to each other.

We Love Local Missions
2026!

The transforming power of the Holy Spirit is so evident throughout the weekend. Each team member is blessed to be a witness to this transformation. We have witnessed anger turned to joy, apathy turned to praise and worship. Lives are changed.

How can you support this ministry? Prayer is foremost, prayers for each of the 36 participants chosen, the team members, and the prison staff. Monetary support, the cost of each weekend is approximately $5000. Donations can be made via the Church Center web site. Meal tickets can be purchased for $5 each, and we feed each participant and team member 9 meals. Prayer chains and placemats for meal time are always a highlight for the weekend.
