FAITH IN THE MIDST OF QUESTIONS

Growth Group Opener:

What's the craziest thing you've ever Googled because you didn't believe what someone told you?

Read: Matthew 28:16-17; John 20:24-29; Luke 7:18-23

What stands out to you in these three stories?

What or who do you find most relatable in these passages?

What significance do you find in the examples of who doubted?

What can we learn from how these people lived and acted, even while doubting?

Dig Deeper: What had John the Baptist declared/prophesied in connection with Jesus and his ministry? How might that have played into his moments of doubt?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your kindness, your patience, and your grace. Thank you for meeting us in our doubts and unbelief, providing us sometimes with reassurance, but always with your presence. Give us the strength and perseverance to wrestle with our own doubts, and we pray that this verse from Mark would be realized in each of our lives: Lord, we believe; help our unbelief. We pray in the name of Jesus, amen.
