THE TEN CHURCHES OF REVELATION

Growth Group Opener:

What kind of doors has God opened or closed in your life recently? How did you respond?

Week 7: Read Revelation 3:7-13

How does Jesus' description of himself provide comfort and courage for this church?

Read Matthew 5:1-11

According to the Beatitudes, what does strength look like in the life of a believer? How does this differ from how the world at large sees strength?

Jesus essentially says to this church that faithfulness matters more than what might look like conventional success. Where might he say this to you in your life and work?

In Rev. 3:11, Jesus instructs this church to hold on to what they have. What has God given you that you can hold on to when struggles come? What are some of the things that anchor your faith?

What are the promises in this passage for those who are victorious in persevering and keeping the Lord's commands?

What significance do you find in the promise of being a pillar in God's temple?
What might this imagery of a pillar represent?

How would keeping an eternal focus make a difference in how you move in the world now?

What open doors do you see in your community? Are there any relationships or opportunities where you could display Christ's love and faithfulness?

What do we learn about God in these passages?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for Jesus, who fills in the gap between our tiny bit of strength and what is needed for victory. We ask that you would take our tiny seeds of strength and faith and help them to grow by your power and your faithfulness. Help us to hold firm to what we have and keep our eyes focused on you, so that when we see a door that only you could open, we will walk through it, as we follow you. In the name of Jesus, amen.
