Ice Breaker 🧊

We hear “breaking news” stories all the time. How can you tell the difference between the most important information versus things thrown out there for ratings or shock effect?

Discussion Questions 💬

1. How does John 1 remind us that God isn't “someone who is far off” or “invisible”?
2. What does living in a dark world look like?
3. Why is light important in a dark world?
4. Do you people see a light in you? How so?
5. How do you present the breaking news of Jesus? The news that Christ came into the world so that our lives would never be the same.
6. How can we start (or continue) living like God is here? How can the invisible God become visible through you?
