

Pastor's Perspective

Pastor Search Update

We're thankful for God's continued guidance as we move forward in our pastor search, and we ask you to please keep praying. In this season of waiting, we must keep our hearts prepared.

As a church family, we are called to remain faithful and unified—continuing to preach the gospel, live as missionaries, and shine the light of Christ wherever God sends us, whether at home, at school, at work, or in our community. We trust God's timing and desire to walk together in faith and unity.

As part of this process, we've created a Pastor Introduction video that reflects the heart, mission, and people of First Baptist Church of Aledo. You can view it on YouTube by going to YouTube.com and searching First Baptist Church of Aledo. This video will be shared through Vanderblomen staffing agency with prospective pastor candidates so they can get a meaningful sense of who we are as a church family.

In Christ,

Seth

Women's Flourish Ministry

Flourish Small Groups Begin Soon!

As we step into a new year, we are excited to see our FLOURISH Women's Small Groups begin again. This year's study, The Way of the Wildflower by Ruth Chou Simons, invites women to release their burdens, rest in God's grace, and discover the freedom that comes from living rooted in Christ.

FLOURISH groups are designed to encourage meaningful connection and spiritual growth in a flexible way. Each group will choose its own meeting schedule, with monthly gatherings encouraged, allowing women to participate in a way that best fits their season of life.

If you signed up online, your group leader will be in touch during the month of January with details about meeting times and information on picking up your study book.

We look forward to seeing how God uses this study to strengthen faith, build community, and help each woman flourish in the year ahead. Questions, see Women's Ministry Chair, Crystal Clark.
