ORDER OF WORSHIP

Redeemer Presbyterian Church

November 16, 2025

Twenty-Third Sunday after Pentecost

In consideration of other worshippers, please program all communication devices to silent mode.

Parents, nurseries are available during the worship service for children ages 3 months - 48 months of age. Babies and toddlers are also welcome in the sanctuary. Bibles are available for use during the worship service; please request one from an usher. Our livestream (redeemersa.org/livestream) is also available at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

Reflection and Preparation

“Mary’s humility is indicated by the fact that she does not anoint the head of Jesus, but his feet. The fragrance of the ointment fills the house – a feature intended both to describe the magnificence of the occasion, and also to have a symbolic significance: The aroma of the knowledge of Christ will at once fill the whole world.” —Rudolf Bultmann

“Mary is the forerunner of the believing church which will in time to come pour out in all the world its works of love flowing from hearts broken at the place of Jesus’ sacrifice.” —Leslie Newbigin

“But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life.” —2 Corinthians 2:14-16

“Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.” —Ephesians 5:1-2

Welcome

Prelude

Call to Worship

Rev. Dr. Bryant McGee

Minister: Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples,

People: Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

Minister: Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;

People: Bring an offering, and come into his courts!

Minister: Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness; tremble before him all the earth.

People: Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

Psalms 96:7-10a

Hymn of Adoration

O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

O for a thousand tongues to sing,
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread thro' all the earth abroad,
The honors of your name.

Jesus! The name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

To God all glory, praise, and love,
Be now and ever given,
By saints below and saints above,
The Church in earth and heaven.

Words by Charles Wesley; Music by Lowell Mason

Prayer of Invocation

Affirmation of Faith

Romans 12:1-2; Hebrews 10:19-25

Minister: Christian, how should we worship God?

All: I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Minister: With what assurance should we worship God?

All: Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Call to Confession

Rev. Victor Martinez (9:15 a.m.)

Bryant McGee (11:00 a.m.)

Minister: Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. (Ephesians 4:29-31)

Public Confession

Minister: Let us confess our sins together.

All: Lord Jesus, you are worthy of all honor and devotion, yet we confess that our hearts are divided. Like Judas, we disguise self-interest as prudence; we criticize the love of others while withholding our own. Forgive us for calculating what you deserve instead of pouring ourselves out in gratitude. You are the priceless treasure, yet we treat you as ordinary. We see the cost of discipleship and call it too much. We see your cross and fail to see its glory. Cleanse our hearts, that the fragrance of our lives may bring joy. Open our eyes again to your infinite worth, that our hearts may bow in love and wonder. In your name we pray. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon and Comfort

Ephesians 4:32-5:2

Minister: Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Song of Renewal

Grace Will Prevail

Grace will prevail, though the darkness is strong,
And the burden weighs heavy and long.
Grace will prevail, for our God is the light,
Rending the cover of night.
Grace will prevail.

Grace will prevail, in the valleys of shame,
Where the echoes of failure remain.
Grace will prevail, with a cry to the Lord,
There's a mountain of mercy in store.
Grace will prevail.

Wait for the Lord our God.
Wait for the Lord our God.
Wait for the Lord,
Our rest and reward and our peace.

Grace will prevail through the wreckage and storm,
And the brokenness washed on the shore.
Grace will prevail, though an ocean we cry,
He is with us and weeps by our side,
'Til the day they forever run dry.

Wait for the Lord our God.
Wait for the Lord our God.
Wait for the Lord,
Our rest and reward and our peace.
Grace will prevail.

The Greeting of Peace

In the first service, children ages four through six are dismissed through the rear side door and into the foyer for TRAINING IN THE PEWS. After the sermon, parents will meet their children at the same door, so they can join their families for communion.

There is no TRAINING IN THE PEWS during the second service.

Guests, please take a moment to sign and pass the Welcome Pad along your row. You may also go to the Redeemer App or redeemersa.org/guest to let us know that you are worshipping with us this morning.

Minister: Let the peace of Christ dwell in your hearts. To this peace we are called as members of a single body. The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

The Sermon

Rev. Matt Beham

“Mary Anoints Jesus”

John 12:1-11

Continuing the Series: Encountering Jesus

Mary Anoints Jesus

¹ Six days before the Passover, Jesus therefore came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ² So they gave a dinner for him there. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those reclining with him at table. ³ Mary therefore took a pound of expensive ointment made from pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. ⁴ But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was about to betray him), said, ⁵ “Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?” ⁶ He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having charge of the moneybag he used to help himself to what was put into it. ⁷ Jesus said, “Leave her alone, so that she may keep it for the day of my burial. ⁸ For the poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me.” ⁹ When the large crowd of the Jews learned that Jesus was there, they came, not only on account of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰ So the chief priests made plans to put Lazarus to death as well, ¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus. — John 12:1-11

Celebration of Holy Communion

Paul Hahn

A Word About Communion at Redeemer:

This is a time for all people to seek the Lord. For Christians, Communion (also called The Lord's Supper or The Eucharist, which means 'thanksgiving') is a time to meet with their Savior by faith, to be strengthened and renewed by him as they eat bread and drink wine. All baptized Christians who trust in Christ alone as their Savior and Lord, belong to a church that embraces the gospel, are at peace with their fellow neighbor, and seek strength and grace to live more faithfully with Christ, are invited to participate. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer and to consider more deeply your relationship to Jesus Christ. We also ask that children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ refrain from partaking until doing so.

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Minister: It is indeed good, right, and our delight that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto You, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, Through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore, with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious Name, evermore praising You and singing:

All:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est. Ho-san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes, in the name of the Lord. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Music by Paul Ranheim

Prayer of Consecration

Words of Institution

Minister: Let us proclaim the mystery of the faith:

All: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again! Hallelujah!

Minister: The gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Holy Communion

Upon usher's direction and starting front to back, please walk down the center aisle to the serving station for your section, giving time for the person in front of you to partake. After partaking, place your cup in the baskets provided and return to your seat using the outside aisle for your section. Please use our communion time to sing and/or meditate as communion is being served.

A Gluten-Free option is available for anyone who requests it from a communion server. The GF bread has been carefully and individually packaged. Redeemer serves wine for communion. The purple cups contain grape juice for those desiring it, and the clear cups contain wine.

Prayers for Those Not Communing

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and leads to the life that you promise. Amen. Prayer of Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen. Prayer of Believing on Jesus

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my needs, and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely to me, and run with perseverance the race that you have set before me, looking only to you, the pioneer and champion of my faith. Amen. Prayer of Struggling Against Sin

1. My worth is not in what I own; not in the strength of flesh and bone. But

Psalm 62 (My Soul Finds Rest)

My soul finds rest in God alone, my rock and my salvation,
A fortress strong against my foes, and I will not be shaken.
Though lips may bless and hearts may curse, and lies like arrows pierce me,
I'll fix my heart on righteousness; I'll look to Him who hears me.

(Chorus) O Praise Him, hallelujah, my Delight and my Reward;
Everlasting, never failing, my Redeemer, my God.

Find rest my soul in God alone amid the world's temptations.
When evil seeks to take a hold, I'll cling to my salvation.
Though riches come and riches go, don't set your heart upon them.
The fields of hope in which I sow are harvested in heaven. (Chorus)

I'll set my gaze on God alone and trust in Him completely,
With every day pour out my soul; and He will prove His mercy.
Though life is but a fleeting breath, a sigh too brief to measure,
My King has crushed the curse of death, and I am His forever. (Chorus)

O Praise Him, O Praise Him, Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
O Praise Him, O Praise Him, Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
O Praise Him, O Praise Him, Hallelujah, Hallelujah! (Chorus)

Words from Psalm 62; Music by Aaron Keyes and Stuart Townend

The Offering

*Hymn of Blessing

O Love That Will Not Let Me Go

O Love that will not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe, that in thine ocean's depths its flow,
May richer, fuller be.

O Light that follow'st all my way, I yield my flick'ring torch to thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray, that in thy sunshine's blaze its day,
May brighter, fairer be.

O Joy that seekest me through pain, I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain, and feel the promise is not vain;
That morn shall tearless be.

O Cross that liftest up my head, I dare not ask to fly from thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead, and from the ground there blossoms red;
Life that shall endless be.

O Love that will not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe, that in thine ocean's depths its flow,
May richer, fuller be.

Words by George Matheson; Music by Christopher Miner

Benediction

Matt Beham

Minister: To God our Father, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere, the aroma of Christ to the world, may his name be forever praised!
