

Hannah prayed urgent, agonizing prayers for a child—the birth of a new generation. She longed to be a mother, so she passionately sought God. In fact, Scripture says she was a deeply troubled woman who poured out her soul to the Lord in great anguish and grief (1 Samuel 1:15-16).

God answered her heartache with a son who would grow up to lead an entire nation into truth. Samuel was Israel's last judge and first prophet. He also anointed Saul and David, the first two kings of Israel.

But Samuel had to first learn to recognize God's voice. As a young boy, he began serving in the temple during a time when words and visions from the Lord were rare. Yet, God spoke his name. And once Samuel understood that this voice calling out to him in the middle of the night was God Almighty, his response was, "Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:9).

God is calling out to a new generation in our day. The Spirit is moving among students, reviving them with dreams and visions to reach their generation and beyond. Let's pray that they recognize God's voice and respond in radical obedience. May they impact our nation with passion and zeal for Jesus!

1 Rejoice with Hannah that God hears and answers our prayers, and that we can "delight in [His] deliverance." Reflect on your many answered prayers—especially the ones that seemed impossible—and thank God for His faithfulness (1 Samuel 2:1).

2 Declare, as Hannah did, "There is no one holy like the LORD; there is no one besides you; there is no Rock like our God." Pray for the next generation to embrace the holiness of God as the guiding truth in their lives (1 Samuel 2:2).

3 Hannah acknowledged, "The LORD brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up." Pray for young people to know the power of God, who gives life and breathes hope into their generation. Ask God to raise them up in radical obedience (1 Samuel 2:6).

4 For years, Hannah was ridiculed for being childless. But she prayed earnestly, seeking God's favor. Pray that God will stir your heart to fervently seek Him for an awakening in this next generation. Pray with belief that God will move powerfully and raise up new leaders who will hear God's voice (1 Samuel 1:6).

5 Hannah named her son Samuel "because I asked the LORD for him." She then gave him over to the Lord for his whole life. Pray that parents will fervently seek God to call upon their sons and daughters to serve Him with passion and zeal. Pray the same for your children and grandchildren (1 Samuel 1:20, 28).

6 Ask God to make this next generation mighty in prayer and fervent in sharing the gospel, just as "the LORD was with Samuel as he grew up, and he let none of Samuel's words fall to the ground" (1 Samuel 3:19).

7 Pray that parents will "tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done." Ask God to inspire parents to pray boldly for their children and then disciple them as Kingdom influencers (Psalm 78:4).

8 Pray that parents will faithfully teach God's Word to their children, so that the next generation is established in the truth of God's laws and statutes. Pray for future generations to remain faithful to Christ (Psalm 78:5-6).

9 Although the ideologies of today's culture can sway the next generation to forsake biblical truth, pray that "they would put their trust in God ... and keep his commands." Pray for discernment of truth and faithfulness to God's Word (Psalm 78:7).

10 Ask God to free this generation from the stubbornness and rebellion of previous generations, so that Gen Z will be known as the generation whose hearts are faithful and loyal to God (Psalm 78:8).

11 After Joshua led Israel into the promised land, the next generation "grew up who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel." Ask God to preserve this upcoming generation with an ever-increasing faith and trust in Almighty God. May they be the revival generation! (Judges 2:10).

12 A new generation after Joshua began following other gods and refused "to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.” Pray that this generation breaks free from the temptation to stray from God, and instead establishes themselves as confident in Christ and holy before God (Judges 2:19).

13 Pray that parents and grandparents will embrace their God-given roles as a generation that “commends your works to another; they tell of your mighty acts.” Pray for beautiful relationships that inspire each other to love God and testify about Him (Psalm 145:4).

14 David longed to continue declaring God’s power to the next generation, even when he was “old and gray,” so that those who came after him knew of God’s mighty acts. Pray that generations will honor each other and freely share the wonders of God—that all might see revival in their day (Psalm 71:18).

15 David wrote about how future generations would proclaim God’s righteousness and declare, “He has done it!” Pray that this next generation will boldly proclaim the power of God to rescue and deliver all who trust in Him (Psalm 22:30-31).

16 Pray for confidence in this next generation to speak God’s truth and not discount their voices because of their youth. Pray for a willing spirit to obey God and go wherever He sends them with the gospel (Jeremiah 1:6-7).

17 Pray for an awakening among students to the power of repentance. Ask the Lord to impart to them His Words: “Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent.” Pray they are overwhelmed by His love as they surrender to Him (Revelation 3:19).

18 Just as Jesus was consumed with clearing out the temple from self-serving practices, pray that students will love His Church and reflect the psalmist’s declaration: “Zeal for your house consumes me” (Psalm 69:9).

19 Pray that students embrace Jesus’ sacrificial gift of His life to purify them and redeem them from wickedness. Pray that they will eagerly pursue good and reflect Christ to others (Titus 2:14).

20 Ask God to make students zealous—not for false doctrine, but for the truth of the gospel to be proclaimed to their generation. Pray that they will discern truth and not back down in the face of deception (Galatians 4:17-18).

21 Claim Your Campus is a movement to mobilize one million middle- and high-school students to pray weekly for their campuses. Ask God to fill students with the same passion of the psalmist: “I cried out to God for help; I cried out to God to hear me.” May they see Jesus as the only solution for their generation (Psalm 77:1).

22 As students cry out to God and claim their campuses, pray that they will know, “The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are attentive to their cry.” Ask the Spirit to encourage them to pray with boldness and faith (Psalm 34:15).

23 Pray that students are consumed with crying out to God for mercy for their campuses. Pray that as they see God move, they will declare to fellow students: “Because he has turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live” (Psalm 116:1-2).

24 Today, students will gather around their campus flagpoles for See You at the Pole. Pray for boldness, that they might proclaim as Habakkuk did, “LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD.” Ask God to give each student opportunity to testify of God’s power to transform their campuses (Habakkuk 3:2).

25 Pray that students will confidently declare to their generation that the Lord is “forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to [Him].” Pray for powerful gospel movements throughout their campuses (Psalm 86:5).

26 Pray that students will walk in “faithfulness to the truth” as they engage with fellow students and testify to the power of Christ in their lives. Pray for their hearts to be revived with confidence and boldness—even in places hostile to the gospel (3 John 1:3).

27 Pray that students overcome shame by reflecting hope in Christ to their generation. Ask God to revive them in His love and empower them with His Spirit so that they can pour out His love to others (Romans 5:5).

28 Pray for this next generation to be birthed “into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” Pray for an awakening that turns a generation to Christ (1 Peter 1:3).

29 Pray for this generation to be “strong in the Lord and in his mighty power.” Pray that students experience reviving power in their prayer lives, their love of the Word, and their proclamation of Christ on their campuses (Ephesians 6:10).

30 Ask God to raise up Samuels in this generation to be bearers of truth, passionate intercessors, and voices of hope to an entire nation. Ask God to give favor and make them a “revival generation” (1 Samuel 2:26).
