

HOLY TRINITY

Presbyterian Church

PNC UPDATE 2/8/26

As the PNC continues the search for our next pastor, we've heard a few say they "hoped" the PNC would make the "correct" decision. What does that mean? Someone who gives great sermons? Who loves people? Provides pastoral care especially when people are hurting? Has a vision for what HTPC could be? All of the above? Wait... that sounds a lot like Jesus! Maybe Jesus could be our next pastor!? Reality check ... Jesus isn't available, at least not in that capacity, and even if He were, we couldn't afford Him! Besides, we already have Jesus.

We have God, too, always by our side, leading us to the one He has chosen to become our next pastor: God's choice, not solely ours.

It's been a seemingly long year since we were elected to serve on the PNC. In the grand scheme of things, it's only been a short period of time since we got the green light from the COM to have our profile matched with potential candidates. Since then, we've been reviewing potential candidates' PDPs and met weekly to discuss and pray about discernment, some of which just didn't pan out. We intend to have a session after church in a couple of weeks to better explain the Presbyterian polity (our rules from the Book of Order, etc.) and provide the detailed steps we have to follow and where we are in that process.

In the meantime, if you have grown restless, anxious, impatient, perhaps weary, remember that God's timing isn't always ours; that we shouldn't pick a warm body for the sake of putting someone in the pulpit just to be available for the next funeral. We don't believe that is what God has in store for HTPC.

Prayer is essential for the work PNC does. Pr Bryan suggested in his January sermon series that The Lord's Prayer is a good way to center us on God first. The beginning is particularly apropos for all of us to reflect upon as the PNC continues the search:

"Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven..." Luke 11:2 -4.
