

This resource is an open-ended way to talk to your children about God each day. The goal is to know him more through his attributes in a child friendly way and learn the truth of his word. Ultimately, we want our children to not only know God, but to LOVE God, forever!

Here are a few suggestions of ways you can use these cards for the next 21 days and beyond.

- Keep the cards close to a daily gathering spot: kitchen table, car, or bedside.
- Focus on the letter for the day and the sounds it makes. "Today our letter is "B". "B" says _____ like ball, baby and big. God is BIG! What else is big? God is the biggest!"
- Read the Bible verse and talk about it
- Pray using the key words, "God thank you for being so _____(able, big, etc.)..."
- Encourage the child to use the key words "God is _____(able, big, etc.)" multiple times during the day.
- Post the card in a spot that will be seen throughout the day.

Other ideas:

- Put the cards on a ring.
- Make an ABC chart and cross off the completed letters.
- Review previous letters and attributes for memory skills.
- Practice making the letter of the day with play-doh, markers, dot stickers.
- Make up a song or sing a known song about the word or verse. Examples: A – He's Able, B – My God is So Big
