

Prayers for Children December

There is power in agreement as the church prays the same prayer each day of the month. This agreement will create a prayer covering over our children. Will you join this church body as we cover our children and youth daily in prayer?

December 1

Awakened to God's Love and Goodness

This Christmas, may our children's hearts be awakened to God's love and may they be grateful for His infinite goodness and filled with His divine peace.

1 Chronicles 16:34 NIV

December 2

Quiet Chamber, Leaps with Joy

May our children's hearts be a quiet chamber and soft undefiled place for Jesus to dwell within them. May their hearts leap with joy at the sound of His name and may His name and praises be on their lips throughout this Christmas season and always.

Psalms 28:7 NLT

December 3

A Close Relationship

Lord, during this Christmas season, may our children draw close to Jesus and enjoy His presence as they grow in relationship with Him.

Psalms 73:28 NIV

December 4

A Witness

Lord, give our children that one special person who needs to hear about Jesus this Christmas. May they be a witness as they share Your story and encourage that person.

Isaiah 43:10 NIV

December 5

Moments of Remembrance

As our children and their families come together this Christmas, may they be drawn into quiet moments of remembrance as they celebrate the birth of Jesus, our Savior and our King.

Luke 2:6 NIV,

Matthew 1:20, 21 NIV

December 6

Surrendered Lives

Instead of gold, frankincense and myrrh, may our children offer Jesus the gift of their lives.

Matthew 2:11 NIV

December 7

Honoring our Savior

May our children and their families fill moments throughout this Christmas season with prayer, giving, worship and intentional acts of kindness in honor of the birth of Jesus, our Savior.

Luke 2:11 NIV

December 8

Give Him Your Best

Like the Magi, may our children diligently seek the Lord and, in His presence, offer Him the best they have to give.

Matthew 2:11, 12 NIV

December 9

Let their Light Shine

During the Christmas season, may our children let their light shine. May they be loving, patient, kind and compassionate like Jesus.

Matthew 5:16 NIV, Galatians 5:22 NIV

December 10

King and Savior

May all of our children confess Jesus to be their Savior and Lord. May they submit to Him, obey Him, and worship Him as King and Savior all the days of their lives.

Matthew 21:5, 8-9 NIV

December 11

Messiah

When our children are asked by those around them who do they think Jesus is, may they know and accept for themselves that He is the Messiah and declare it boldly.

Mark 8:29 NLT

December 12

Nothing is Impossible

As Mary was reminded by the angel, may our children be reminded in their hearts that nothing is impossible with God.

Luke 1:35-37 NLT

December 13

Blessed as they Believe

Like Mary, may our children be blessed as they believe the Lord will do what He says He will do.

Luke 1:45 NLT

December 14

Opportunities to Pause

In the midst of the excitement of Christmas with all the decorating, gifts, and baking, may our children find many opportunities to pause and redirect their thoughts to Jesus whose birth they are celebrating.

Luke 2:1-7 NIV

December 15

Memories that Last a Life Time

Father, guide our children as they celebrate the birth of Jesus. May their day be full of peace, memories and special moments that last a life time.

Luke 2:1-7 NIV

December 16

Peace on Earth

May our children praise God in song and word for the gift of His son. As His children, may they be inspired to glorify Him by working and living in peace with each other.

Luke 2:13, 14 NIV

December 17

A Blessed Child

Lord, may our children grow up as Jesus did becoming strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and having the grace of God's favor and spiritual blessing on them.

Luke 2:40 NKJV

December 18

God's Children

May our children embrace the unique relationship and identity they have as God's children and may they be impassioned to grow, mature and walk in their divine destiny.

Luke 2:42, 49 NIV

December 19

He Left the Splendor of Heaven

When our children think about the splendor of heaven and the extent Jesus went to save them, may they celebrate the Christmas season from a grateful, thankful heart.

John 1:1, 10, 14 NIV

December 20

Hope

May God be the source of our children's hope and may He fill them completely with joy and peace.

Romans 15:13 NLT

December 21

I Hear Your Voice

May our children declare, "Lord, You are the Good Shepherd and I hear Your voice. I will listen and follow after You."

John 10:27 NLT

December 22

Nearness of God

This Christmas season, may our children's hearts be awakened and filled with the wonder of the nearness of God in Jesus Christ.

John 14:9-10 NIV

December 23

God's Word Applied

Father, make our children holy as You teach them the truth of Your Word.

John 17:17 NLT

December 24

Sent Ones

Like Jesus and as sent ones, may our children go into the world and do the work God has for them.

John 17:18 NKJV, NLT

December 25

Christmas Evening

As Christmas day comes to an end and our children go to bed, may their minds be full of grateful thoughts because Jesus came to make a way for them to go to God and have an intimate relationship with Him.

John 10:10 NIV, John 14:6 NIV

December 26

God's Child

Father, may our children know You as "Abba Father" and claim their full identity as Your children and heirs through Christ.

Galatians 4:6, 7 NKJV

December 27

True Gifts of Christmas

Besides the natural gifts, may our children be blessed with the true and divine gifts of love, hope, joy and peace that come from God.

Galatians 5:22 NIV

December 28

Faithfulness

Father, cause faithfulness to grow in our children and may they be a blessing in their generation. May they reflect Christ's character of stability, dependability and consistency in all areas of their lives.

Galatians 5:22 NLT

December 29

Sing to Jesus

May our children sing to Jesus all the songs of Christmas as they celebrate Him in their hearts.

Colossians 3:16 NIV

December 30

All Their Days

All the days of their lives, may our children serve the Lord their God and fear Him alone.

Deuteronomy 13:4 NLT

December 31

Strong and Courageous

Father, help our children to be strong, courageous and obedient to Your instructions without deviating to the right or the left.

Joshua 1:7 NLT

