PASTOR'S BLOG

So this will be the last "Pastor's Blog" of 2024. I know...I know. Don't be sad, there will be a lot more to come in the new year.

He was born to die

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of our dear Saviour's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
'Til He appear'd and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!

This first verse of the popular Christmas Carol, "O Holy Night" helps us capture the magnitude of why God sent His only-begotten Son into the world. There was purpose...a mission that He had to accomplish that was to rescue us from the dominion of sin, death and Satan. He entered into a world that was filled with darkness, with sin and error. But by bringing His light into the darkness, we see how much we are worth to God - to have His Son die on a cross and then rise from the dead. And our response should be hope in this weary world - the salvation He won for us. Our sin, our brokenness is not the end of the story for God breaks in and gives us a new chapter. He reconciles us to the Father, giving us a new relationship with Him.

Jubilee 2025

Beginning December 24th we are entering into the Jubilee Year which will conclude on the feast of the Epiphany 2026. The theme of the year is to be Pilgrims of Hope. Our world is still laying in sin and error. But we have hope, Christ has already won the victory. And as Pilgrims of Hope, we are to proclaim the Good News of victory that Jesus has won to a world in need of His love.

Happy Christmas

So as my last words for 2025 in blog format, I would like to wish you and your loved ones a very Happy Christmas and a New Year filled with hope and joy. As we enter the Christmas season, my prayers for you are to celebrate knowing that our God has come to meet us, we can look on him face to face. In this celebration, you matter to the creator of the universe that He would stoop down to our lowly state to raise us up as children of the Father. He delights in you...He loves you.

Fr Michael

SSVP CHRISTMAS BLESSINGS TO ALL

As long as there are people like you, the world is a hopeful place.

This is the message that was on one of the cards given to us by a Neighbour in Need. With so much darkness in our world, we can choose to light a candle and bring hope to each other, because the birth of Jesus brings us hope.

May God bless each of you this Christmas and beyond.

Angela, Heather, Sal, Angela, Dawn, Trish, Renzo, Anne, Lucy, Pat, Kim, Inga
